

HENRY H. SCADIN DAIRIES

1906

Monday, January 1

This has been a beautiful New Years day. I made 102 Platinum prints.

Kate was painting all day.

Tuesday, Jan. 2

There were filmy clouds all today and tonight it looks very much like a coming snow storm. I went to Ann Arbor on the noon train from Delhi. Took dinner with the Cushmans as Elmer is home now. I did a number of errands and came home on the train tonight. Mr. Bayliss, the preacher, is here tonight. Dewey is quite sick with a cold.

Wednesday, Jan. 3

Mr. Bayliss and I went to the lake this morning to see how strong the ice was and found it about 3 inches thick. It began to rain soon and kept it up all day. Tonight it is blowing up like a change and is clearing off. I mounted up a number of paintings.

Thursday, Jan. 4

Ther.: 28+

A heavy wind from the south west and heavy snow squalls making a disagreeable day.

I wrote some letters and ordered a renewal to the Youths Companion for Nellie.

Sawed and split some wood for exercise.

Friday, Jan. 5

Ther.: 32+

I went to Dexter this forenoon to do a lot of errands. When I got home I drove down for Maude Williams so she could be at our social tonight which was a success as there were about 45 folks here. There were squalls of snow but it was not cold.

Saturday, Jan. 6

Ther.: 26+

It has been a howler today, the wind blew a gale and flurries of snow in the air. I drove to Ed Marts this afternoon to return the dishes and chairs borrowed of the farmers club.

We had a choir practice here this afternoon.

The moon is very bright tonight.

Sunday, Jan. 7

Ther.: 22+, 16+

Fairly pleasant winter day. We all went to church today and I sang in the choir as I did years ago, but none of the old choir are here now.

Don took dinner with us and Edwin Ball and wife called tonight to see mother as she intends to go to Cleveland tomorrow.

It is becoming somewhat sharply cold tonight.

Monday, Jan. 8
Ther.: 14+, 2+, 12+

Pretty cold today.

I drove up to Dexter this morning taking Nellie to school and mother to the train as she started for Cleveland. Will went down to Detroit with her. This afternoon I went to Ralph Williams' to look at and buy a young hog.

It cleared up and is cold tonight.

Tuesday, Jan. 9
Ther.: 14+, 26+, 22+

Grew a little warmer today. The sun shone and I did a good batch of Platinum prints.

I cleaned out two chimneys so I guess there will be no danger of their burning out this winter.

Wednesday, Jan. 10
Ther.: 20+, 34+

Another fine day and I made a large batch of prints.

Will came down this morning and he and John Bird sawed up wood in the north woods.

Kate went to Dexter with Will tonight and she and Millie are to join the Eastern Stars tonight.

Thursday, Jan. 11
Ther.: 34+

Very mild weather and wind in the south all day. Will and Millicent were here at supper and then drove home.

We had a young hog die of cholera tonight and it may kill all we have now.

I printed some pictures in spite of the clouds.

Friday, Jan. 12

Been a very mild day and thawed some.

I worked at the photo printing.

Nellie came home from Dexter this afternoon, driving the rig Will took up last night.

Saturday, Jan. 13

It was cloudy all today, but not cold.

I did no photo printing today.

Had a letter from mother today.

Sunday, Jan. 14
Ther.: 37+

It drizzled some last night and this morning. We all went to church. Don took dinner with us.

Monday, Jan. 15
Ther.: 48+

Showery all day and quite warm, wind rising tonight with prospect of colder spell.

I went to Dexter this morning to take Nellie to school and do a few errands. Will came back with me.

Tuesday, Jan. 16
Ther.: 34+, 30+, 26+

Ground covered with soft snow this morning. It has blown a gale all day and snowed some. The mail carrier was about 3 hours late because of hard traveling.

Will went back to Dexter this afternoon.

It is colder tonight.

Wednesday, Jan. 17
Ther.: 29+, 28+

Cloudy all day and a snow storm from the east raging tonight.

I signed, marked and sorted a lot of the painted sketches today.

Kate and Ida Kenny were at Mrs. Lew Bennett's this afternoon.

Thursday, Jan. 18
Ther.: 32+, 36+

Been several snow squalls today and there were some sleighs running about.

It grew warmer again.

Mounted and signed more pictures.

Dewey had earache again. He has not been able to go to school this week.

Friday, Jan. 19
Ther.: 28+, 32+

Looked over and sorted most all the apples in the cellar this forenoon.

Went to Dexter for Nellie and the laundry this afternoon. Mabel Kenny rode out with us. It seems very storm like tonight.

Saturday, Jan. 20
Ther.: 63+

Been the warmest day of the winter.

Will came out and drew a load of wood up to his home. The sun came out and I did some printing.

Went down to Maude's and practiced some songs tonight.

Sunday, Jan. 21

Ther.: 63+

Real warm again today. None of us went to church and there were so few they held no service.

Don came over and was here at lunch tonight.

It rained all the forenoon and seems like it again tonight. Dewey still has bad feelings in his ears and is quite deaf.

Monday, Jan. 22

Ther.: 62+, 38+

Rained considerable last night. I went to Dexter with the team this morning to take the milk, Nellie and the washing. It rained while I was there but I was at Will's. Finished pruning grape vines by the house and also pruned all the trees in the young orchard this afternoon. It grew much cooler this afternoon.

Tuesday, Jan. 23

Ther.: 32+, 30+

Some slight snow squalls this morning.

It has grown cooler.

Will came at noon and he and John are sawing wood.

Kate went to a Minstrel concert at Dexter tonight with Don.

Wednesday, Jan. 24

Ther.: 26+

Frozen up this morning. It has been quite pleasant all day. I made 120 photo prints.

Will went home tonight, but rode a horse so as to come down tomorrow.

Dewey started to school again this afternoon.

Thursday, Jan. 25

Wind from the east all day and looked stormy till toward night it cleared up. I did some printing for large paintings.

Will and John continued cutting wood.

Friday, Jan. 26

Fine pleasant day.

I drove up to Dexter and put my horse out at Will's barn. Had dinner with uncle John and aunt Ann. Put in considerable time studying masonry with uncle John. Showed a sample lot of our paintings to several friends.

Mabel Kenny rode home with me and Grace and the teacher there came for her and all spent the evening here.

Saturday, Jan. 27

Ther.: 40+

Grew warmer today.

Will and John Bird worked at the wood till noon.

I made a large batch of photo prints.

Kate and Dewey took a ride and went down to see Mrs. Otis Cushing's toward night.

Sunday, Jan. 28

Cloudy this morning and seemed stormy, but it cleared off very nice this afternoon.

Kate, Dewey and I went up to Dexter after church and had dinner with Will and his folks. Jay McColl's wife and baby were here from Detroit and we had a nice time.

Monday, Jan. 29

Ther.: 40+

Frozen in the road this morning but it warmed up and thawed later in the day. I took Nellie up to Dexter this morning.

John Bird told me this morning that he was going to quit his job here so I am badly out in my dealing with him. The farm and all the chores come back on my hands Feb. 1.

Sawed up some wood this afternoon.

Tuesday, Jan. 30

Will came out today and has been drawing up some wood for us. It has been a dull day, but I got over 90 prints made.

Wednesday, Jan. 31

Ther.: 22+

It was more like winter this morning, but not severely cold.

Will came down and we drew wood this forenoon. I walked down to Wheelers this afternoon to settle with Gene and get the things he had repaired. Tomorrow morning I have all the chores back on my hands again.

Thursday, February 1

Ther.: 30+, 5+

A couple of inches of snow this morning made things look wintry. It was mild though and almost rained, then grew cold and then was many snow squalls during the day. The Farmers institute was held at the church today and Kate was working at the school house helping get dinner and supper. I took the chores over on to my own hands this morning. Was up to hear the speaking tonight at the church. Will and Nellie are staying here. It has grown very cold.

Friday, Feb. 2

Ther.: 4, 10+

Coldest of the winter this morning. The sun shone so the ground hog could see his shadow all right. Will and Nellie went home this forenoon and Nellie drove the rig back tonight.

I spent the day in doing chores and keeping up fires.

We had a call from Horace Sayles this afternoon.

Went to Maude's to practice singing tonight.

Saturday, Feb. 3
Ther.: 3+, 21+, 32+

Sharply cold this morning and the wind has blown a gale all day, but it has grown steadily warmer.

I went to Delhi this forenoon for Millpeed.

Sawed up some wood and did chores.

Sunday, Feb. 4
Ther.: 34+, 26+, 20+

Quite moderate this morning, but growing colder. We all went to church. Don took dinner with us.

Monday, Feb. 5
Ther.: 0, 8+, 2+

Stinging cold.

Don came and took Nellie up to Dexter this morning.

Did little today but the chores. So cold I wanted to be in the house most of the time. Will came down about noon and was cutting wood this afternoon. He is staying here tonight.

Tuesday, Feb. 6
Ther.: 1-, 12+, 4+

Cold continues.

I walked up to Dexter this forenoon and took dinner with uncle John and aunt Ann. Was studying masonry under uncle John. I met Will walking home as I came back this afternoon.

I saw a very beautiful meteor in the North east tonight.

Wednesday, Feb. 7
Ther.: 4, 18+, 8+

Wrote a letter to mother this forenoon.

It was very cold this morning.

I sawed some wood this afternoon.

Kate went to Dexter to her lodge meeting tonight.

Thursday, Feb. 8
Ther.: 4+, 29+

Eclipse of the moon tomorrow morning.

Grew moderate today. Will drew a load of wood up to his home. Kate was at Steptoos this forenoon and has gone over to spend the night. Eddie is very sick.

I am so sleepy I fear I will not wake to see the eclipse after midnight.

Friday, Feb. 9

Did nothing much today but chores and odd jobs, and studying to take my third masonic degree tonight.

Don came over to supper and took me up to Dexter. I went to the Lodge with Uncle John Spoor. The new Temple is in use now, and I was the first man to be initiated in the same[?].

It grows colder tonight.

I saw the eclipse at 2:30 last night.

Saturday, Feb. 10

Ther.: 8+, 12+

Kate went to Steptoos this forenoon to see how Eddie was and to take them a little something. When she came back she took Dewey and Nellie and went on the Latson's to the meeting of the Farmers club. I wrote some letters and ordered more photo material. It has been a fine winter day.

Sunday, Feb. 11

Ther.: 5+, 26+

It grew warmer today. I had a toothache and so did not go to church. Don came down and took dinner with us.

We expect mother home tomorrow night.

Monday, Feb. 12

Ther.: 48+

A very nice pleasant day. I made platinum prints this forenoon. Will came down just at noon to be here tonight to do the chores. I went to Ann Arbor this afternoon to meet ma at the train from Toledo. We got home just at dark.

Tuesday, Feb. 13

Ther.: 40+

We have talked over today about Will taking the farm, and I think now it is likely he will, and we probably move to Dexter. It began to rain this afternoon and tonight it is raining quite hard.

Wednesday, Feb. 14

Ther.: 12+, 14+, 7+

It turned cold during last night and has been windy all today. Will came down this forenoon and will stay over tonight.

Kate has painted and I have mounted some of the large pictures.

Thursday, Feb. 15

Ther.: 2-, 14+, 12+

Bitting cold this morning. I did up some paintings to send to Asheville and took them up to Dexter to express. I walked up and had dinner with uncle John and aunt Ann. I made arrangements so we can rent the house Will is now in if we wish to and I went to look at a house on this side of the river. Will drove back home tonight. Kate was away making candy for the Masonic Fair.

Friday, Feb. 16

Ther.: 4+

Pretty cold this morning, but it has warmed up today and seems quite moderate.

I began printing on some special work for the Toxaway Hotel Co. Will hauled up wood for himself this afternoon.

Kate went to Dexter to get Nellie and the washing.

Saturday, Feb. 17

Been a mild day.

I printed a lot of photos on Platino.

Will did not come down today.

There was a surprise party at Balls tonight and Kate and I went down.

Sunday, Feb. 18

Cloudy all day with chilly south west wind, a little mist and a few flakes of snow. I went to Dexter and had dinner with Will and his folks. We talked over the matter of his renting the farm and I believe it is now decided on.

Monday, Feb. 19

Ther.: 42

Grown quite warmer today. I wrote several letters this forenoon so did no picture work till after dinner. Will was here most all day. Edwin Ball, Bert Kenny and Frank Wheeler came this afternoon and appraised the personal property as Will wants to buy it of mother.

Tuesday, Feb. 20

Ther.: 50+

Warm day for winter.

It rained some this afternoon.

Did some photo printing this forenoon.

Kate, Dewey and Miss Cullinam went up to see Eddie Steptoe.

We killed 3 hens tonight to cook for a Missionary dinner here Thursday.

Wednesday, Feb. 21

Ther.: 35+

Continues warm and the mud is getting very deep and bad.

I finished Platino photos today.

I am very tired tonight.

Thursday, Feb. 22

Been a mild, nice day, but the mud is getting very bad in the roads.

A missionary meeting of the ladies was held here today and our folks served dinner. I was kept busy with the horses.

Friday, Feb. 23

Continues soft and warm. I made blue prints today and had rather bad luck with them. Kate, mother and Dewey went to the Masonic Fair in Dexter tonight.

Kate and Nellie came home but mother and Dewey got scared at the dark night and stayed at Will's.

Saturday, Feb. 24

Nellie went to Dexter and got mother and Dewey this forenoon. The roads are fearful muddy. I finished pruning grape vines.

It is warm weather.

Very nice day. We had the garden plowed this forenoon. Don took Kate out to the Webster cemetery to the burial of an aunt. I packed and nailed up three boxes of freight to send south. Will came up tonight to a band practice.

Wednesday, April 18

Been a warm day.

I packed the pictures and my trunk today and got my things hauled to the depot.

Mr. Hicks came this afternoon and we put in a telephone.

News has come of a terrible earthquake in San Francisco this morning.

Thursday, April 19

Got at 4 o'clock this morning so as to get off on the early train. Said good bye to the folks and started south. I stopped all the forenoon in Detroit and visited the Savigny Studios. Left afternoon for Cincinnati and there I got sleeper for Asheville. The news of the San Francisco earthquake grow worse and worse.

Friday, April 20

While we waited at Knoxville this morning I went to the Cumberland Hotel and called on Mr. and Mrs. Heelan. Went up town at Asheville for a short time and then came on to Brevard tonight.

Saturday, April 21

Did considerable trading this forenoon so as to have something to eat while I stay up in the Sapphire country.

Took dinner with Dr. and Mrs. Cheatham.

Settled with Mr. Nichols for the pictures he has sold for us the past winter.

Came on up to Lake Toxaway tonight.

I find there have been many changes in business ways up here.

Sunday, April 22

I made Mr. Jacobs folks a short visit this forenoon and had a good talk with Mr. Burrows about the picture business for this year. Had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Nixon. Walked up to our mountain home this afternoon.

Mr. Burlingame hitched up and we went to Sapphire for my grip. I had supper with them. Am going to try sleeping in the house tonight.

Monday, April 23

Been at work trying to get things shaped so I can be comfortable in the home again. Made one trip to Sapphire. Ate some of the lunch put up at home for my dinner. Had breakfast at Dave Miller's and got my own supper.

Tuesday, April 24

The mercury was below freezing this morning and I fear much damage was done to fruit buds and blossoms.

Alfred Miller brought my trunk, express box of negatives, and freight from Philadelphia. I wanted the box of provision most of all but it did not come.

Wednesday, April 25

Did some at cleaning house this forenoon. Went to Sapphire about noon on summons from Mr. Burrows and so had dinner there. Sold some of our paintings to the guests. Had supper with the Burlingames this evening. It has turned real warm. Had a card from Kate written last Saturday.

Thursday, April 26

Been sawing wood most of the day, Mr. D. Miller helping me. Mr. Burlingame went to Lake Toxaway and got my box of provision and sack of Graham flour.

Had a letter from Kate and Dewey tonight.

Friday, April 27

Spent most of the forenoon at Sapphire and sold some more pictures.

Did a little tree trimming this afternoon but several showers hindered all our work.

Saturday, April 28

Been a warm but pleasant day.

I sprayed the grape vines, cherry trees, pear trees, some of the plum and a large number of the peach trees. I am pretty tired tonight. Went over to Burlingames but found no mail.

It is very warm tonight and threatens rain.

Sunday, April 29

We had a thunder shower this forenoon.

I slept, read and rested the day out.

Dave Miller and wife came up and called on me this afternoon and we went about in the orchard.

I wrote to Kate and took the letter over to Burlingames tonight.

Monday, April 30

I finished spraying peach and plum trees this forenoon. Did a little pruning this afternoon then went to Sapphire to take pictures to the Sapphire Inn.

There was hard thunder but the rain did not come here.

I had a letter from Kate this afternoon.

Tuesday, May 1

I went to Lake Toxaway today to settle at the Inn.

Took dinner at the Jacobs and had a good visit.

There was quite a hard shower at noon time, making the walking some sticky as I came back home.

Wednesday, May 2

Very pleasant day but quite breezy.

I went up on Mt. Toxaway to take up a stock of pictures to place on sale at The Lodge.

I am as fond of making the trip up there as ever and enjoy the grand scenery. It thunders about tonight and acts like rain.

Thursday, May 3

It rained most of this forenoon.

I had Dave cut an old chestnut tree back of the house, then the rain ran us in.

It stopped storming at noon, and I pruned fruit trees this afternoon.

Went over to Burlingames and got my mail tonight. Had a letter from ma and Kate.

Friday, May 4

Worked hard on the place all day, most of the time trimming apple trees.

It is cooler tonight.

Saturday, May 5

Been very pleasant day. I worked all day cleaning up and fixing things at the shop.

Dave set out a new strawberry bed for me this afternoon.

Mr. Burlingame and Lucy called a little while this evening. After supper the watered the new strawberry bed by moonlight.

Sunday, May 6

There was a good shower this morning.

Mr. Burlingame came over and we looked over the peach trees.

This afternoon I went over to Dr. Grimshawes and had a nice chat.

Was overtaken by a heavy thunder shower at Burgess' and made them a long call. It is cooler tonight and seems to be clearing up.

Monday, May 7

It was cool, gloomy and threatened storm all the forenoon but cleared off very bright this afternoon. I was over at Sapphire this forenoon. Fixed up the paths some this afternoon. Had letters from Kate and from Hiram tonight. It seems cold enough to frost.

Tuesday, May 8

There was frost this morning but I did not see that it hurt anything here. I went over Rainy Knob this morning to look at things there. I found all fruit trees seeming to be doing well. I spent most of the day pruning apple trees. Mr. and Mrs. Giles of Toronton, Canada, who are at Sapphire Inn, called this afternoon.

Wednesday, May 9

This is Dewey's birthday and I would like to have been home. Have felt near to being homesick today.

I did more pruning of apple trees. It has been very cool and windy, but is getting calm tonight so I fear heavy frost.

Thursday, May 10

Ther.: 29+

There came a bad freeze last night and lots of our fruit has been killed. It is very discouraging. I felt so sort of dazed I just pattered about all the forenoon. This afternoon I went over to Sapphire and sold some of our paintings to the guests at the Inn. Made up some kerosene emulsion this evening and sprayed a tree infested with scale.

Friday, May 11

I sprayed apple trees and grape vines this forenoon.

Did odd jobs this afternoon.

Called at Burlingames tonight.

It has turned warmer.

Saturday, May 12

Worked at the shop a good share of the day, unpacking negatives and fixing to do some developing tonight. I went over to the Sapphire Inn for a while after dinner to take over more pictures.

Dr. Gorman, a dentist from Asheville, came in on horseback and stopped a while to give an order for pictures.

Sunday, May 13

A nice day.

Some people from the Sapphire Inn came over this afternoon to look over our pictures.

I went over to Mr. Burlingames and spent the evening.

Monday, May 14

Quite warm in the sun today.

I went to Sapphire and up to Fairfield this afternoon. Made some film negatives which I developed tonight.

One of the hotel guests gave me some magazines which I brought home. Had a letter from Kate and one from Hiram.

Tuesday, May 15

Bright day.

I made platinum prints for the paintings.

Had word tonight that my freight in at the Lake.

Wednesday, May 16

Been warm, pleasant day.

Went down to Alfred Millers this morning to get a team to go for my freight.

Printed Platino paper most all day.

Poly Miller brought my freight in tonight and it looks all right.

Thursday, May 17

I unpacked the freight this forenoon and found everything all right. Am ready now to do business.

Did a little platinum finishing this afternoon but clouds and a very little sprinkle stopped my printing.

I had letters from Kate and Nellie tonight.

Friday, May 18

Bright and warm this forenoon, cloudy this afternoon.

I finished a batch of platino prints.

Saturday, May 19

I put in a day of printing and finishing photos.

It threatened heavily to rain this evening but all blew over and I fear is going to stay dry.

Sunday, May 20

Been a beautiful day. I read, wrote and fussed some with my finished photos.

Went to Burlingames and had supper tonight.

Monday, May 21

Cloudy and foggy all day with a little shower this evening. I walked down to Lake Toxaway this forenoon going by Sapphire. I went to Mr. Burrowes. Took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Nixon.

Received some pictures from Kate and a letter tonight.

Tuesday, May 22

Went to Sapphire Inn this forenoon and from there up the The Lodge on Mt. Toxaway where I had dinner and then hunted purple Rhododendron. We had nice showers last night.

Some miserable cat tore done the pheb birds nest on the porch and ate up the young during last night.

Wednesday, May 23

Got up very early this morning and went over to Burlingames for breakfast. Then I went up to "Camp Sapphire," the Backus place, to try some views for him. Mounted some of the paintings this afternoon. Received a large package of paintings from Kate tonight.

Thursday, May 24

I worked at fixing up paintings about all day.

Some ladies came over from the hotel this forenoon and I showed them about the place.

Been pleasant but cool all day.

Friday, May 25

Been drizzling all day.

Worked at the paintings again.

Don't feel first rate tonight and am going to bed without any supper.

Saturday, May 26

It rained hard all last night and all this forenoon.

I went to Sapphire Inn this afternoon and found Mr. Hillars, the Washington photographer artist, there and had a good visit with him.

Have felt rather weak all day.

Sunday, May 27

Threatened storm all day, but did not rain till this evening when it showered. I am anxious to go to Whiteside Cove this week and fear continued storms will hinder me. I was at Burlingames for supper tonight.

Monday, May 28

Got up early so as to get a good start for Whiteside Cove. I was there and exposed a good many films before dinner. This afternoon I walked on to Highlands making a hard days work. It has been a fine day, but is windy and cool tonight.

Tuesday, May 29

Went to Sunset Rocks to make views this morning. Called on some friends and after noon I went out to Glen Falls.

It has been nice day.

It was a warm walk.

Took dinner with the Nixon's.

It is raining tonight.

Saturday, June 2

Worked in the shop about all day.

Sent my baggage down to Lake Toxaway by Mr. Miller this afternoon.

Went over to Burlingames this evening and stayed there to supper.

Sunday, June 3

Got up very early this morning and walked down to Lake Toxaway. Came on train to Brevard and Hiram was at the train to meet me. It rained quite heavy this afternoon so we did not get out to walk.

Monday, June 4

Stayed around Hiram's Gallery about all day. It rained very hard this evening. I had my walking shoes tapped, wrote to mother and Kate, and did various errands.

Tuesday, June 5

Wet day. Spent most of my time in reading and resting.

Wednesday, June 6

Very pleasant day.

I took a walk up the railroad this forenoon.

Hiram and I went to a little mountain called Elk Lodge to try getting some views this afternoon. It was a sightly place looking over the valley and to the mountains beyond.

Thursday, June 7

Left Brevard this forenoon and had dinner at Hendersonville. Saw Mr. Toaker at his gallery and he complimented our painted work very highly. Came on to Tryon tonight and Mr. Conner met me at the train.

Friday, June 8

Started out early this morning and went up through Howard Gap and on trails back of Tryon Mountain up to Skyuka and Log Cabin Inn where I had dinner. The weather was fine and I made a number of exposures with the Kodak.

Saturday, June 9

I did but little work today. Went over town this forenoon. There was quite a heavy thunder storm this afternoon.

Sunday, June 10

Spent the day in visiting. Had a little group work to do this afternoon as the Keenan family were at Mr. Howe's and will leave for Colorado on Tuesday.

Monday, June 11

I went up on Tryon Mt. today thinking there would be a fine cloud display, but was disappointed somewhat. I had a long walk. This is the second anniversary Kate and I have had to be apart. It was the 22nd.

Tuesday, June 12

This morning a Dr. Shaffer went with me and we took in Melrose Falls. It began raining at noon and had come down all the rest of the day. I had 4 letters from home and was glad to get them. Am staying at Mr. Howes tonight.

Wednesday, June 13

Things looked like a flood this morning and it has rained all day. I went over town this forenoon and settled with Missildine. I sent Kate $20 and received my check from the Toxaway Hotel Co.

Thursday, June 14

No sunshine today so got no views. It did not rain so I hop for fair weather tomorrow. Tried taking some interiors for the drug store this afternoon. I loaded all my plate holders tonight.

Friday, June 15

It rained all this forenoon but cleared for a while this afternoon so I got over town and made some exposures.

Saturday, June 16

I went out beyond Lynn today noon to try a view but weather was against me. Had to take shelter from a rain for about an hour. I packed up and said good bye to my Tryon friends and started for Brevard this evening but am hung up in Hendersonville for the night.

Sunday, June 17

Got to Brevard about noon today. Hiram and I took a nice walk out by the French Broad this afternoon. We met a hard shower just as we were getting back.

Monday, June 18

I came home today. The train was late so I did not leave the Lake till about 3 o'clock to walk up. Took supper with the Burlingames. It threatened heavy but did not rain here today.

Tuesday, June 19

I planted the fig sprouts Mr. Howes gave me. Picked some cherries and strawberries, so I have fruit to eat. I killed a copper head snake at the wood pile this forenoon.

Wednesday, June 20

This has been a clear day. I printed some platinum photos and finished them. Had a letter from Kate tonight.

Thursday, June 21

Been a very nice day. Dave Miller began mowing the grass and weeds on the place. I went over town this afternoon and took more pictures to the store. Carried a few berries to Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong. Am having red raspberries now.

Friday, June 22

Perfectly clear day. I worked in the shop all day.

Mrs. Burlingame gave me a pie tonight made from the cherries I gave her.

Saturday, June 23

Finished a mess of photos this forenoon. It is raining tonight and much cooler.

Sunday, June 24

It took most of the forenoon to do up my house chores and get cleaned up for Sunday. Mr. Burlingame called about noon. I wrote some letters and took them over to Lucy to mail. There was a very heavy wind tonight and some rain.

Monday, June 25

It was very warm until a thunder storm came just at night. I hoed out the strawberry bed this forenoon. Printed some photos and had some portrait sitters this afternoon.

Tuesday, June 26

This has been one of the most beautiful days I ever saw and I regret that I worked in the shop instead of being out with camera. I did make a few Kodak views toward night.

Wednesday, June 27

Warm and muggy. I made more platinum prints. There was a heavy shower this evening.

Thursday, June 28

Rained hard about all day. I continued developing and finished up work on hand tonight.

Friday, Oct. 19

It cleared up this morning and I went at the printing and got off a good batch. I did them up to mail and took them over to Burlingames tonight. Had a letter from Kate. The wind is high and is taking off the leaves.

Saturday, Oct. 20

Did a large batch of platinum prints. There were more or less clouds in the sky and I fear foul weather will come again soon. I had a letter from Dewey.

Sunday, Oct. 21

Stayed close at home till afternoon when I went over to Dr. Grimshawes to get some medicine Kate wanted for Dewey and Nellie. I had supper at Burlingames and Mr. Smith of Highlands was there so he came over to stay all night with me.

Monday, Oct. 22

Worked at pictures all day. It was quite pleasant and bright. There is a mist in the air tonight. Mr. Smith is here tonight.

Tuesday, Oct. 23

I came to Highlands with Mr. Smith today. It has been very pleasant weather.

Wednesday, Oct. 24

Cloudy all day so I could hardly do anything with the camera, but I made a couple of exposures on the Botanical Library. Made some calls this afternoon and took supper at Mr. Rideouts.

Thursday, Oct. 25

A clear and windy day. It has grown real cool. I went up on Sunset Rocks this forenoon and on Bear Pen Ridge this afternoon. Had dinner at Mr. White's.

Friday, Oct. 26

Left Highlands this morning and came down to Whiteside Cove. I went to Zeb Alleys and tried taking an interior for Miss Smedley. Am staying at the Grimshawes. Been a very nice day.

Saturday, Oct. 27

Came home today. Called at Burlingames tonight and got bread and my mail. Dave has gone to meet Hiram at Lake Toxaway. There was frost this morning and it is cool tonight.

Sunday, Oct. 28

Cold and windy day. I had breakfast at Dave Millers. Hiram was there and came home with me. I had to go down near Whitewater at noon time, and then I came back by Dr. Grimshawes and made a group photo.

Monday, Oct. 29

Ther.: 24+

Frozen hard this morning. Hiram went hunting. Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Highlands are visiting at Burlingames and called here this forenoon. I mounted pictures and also made a trip to Sapphire this afternoon. Hiram is cooking squirrel tonight.

Tuesday, Oct. 30

Sorted all my apples this forenoon. There were more or less clouds all day. I did some printing at noon time. Hiram and I sawed up a little wood. We called at Burlingames tonight.

Wednesday, Oct. 31

Been a bright day. It is freezing tonight. Worked at the pictures all day. Had Dave Miller fix up the cellar for winter. Hiram was out hunting most all day.

Thursday, November 1

Fine day. I made 100 prints for paintings. Had Dave cutting up wood all day. I did some developing tonight. Hiram cooked more squirrel.

Friday, Nov. 2

Another fine day. I made over 100 prints for Kate to paint. Dave fixed fence and chopped wood for me. Hiram did more hunting.

Saturday, Nov. 3

I went to Lake Toxaway this forenoon to settle up with Mr. Burrows, and to make some children's photos as I came back. It has been warmer today. Hiram and I had supper with Dave Miller's folks tonight.

Sunday, Nov. 4

Hiram and I walked up around Lake Fairfield today. We saw a bunch of nice deer in the woods near the lake. We are invited to go to Burlingames for supper.

Monday, Nov. 5

Hiram left early this morning. It was cloudy in the morning but cleared up before noon. It is quite smoky all about. I printed platinum today.

Tuesday, Nov. 6

Very smoky all day. This was election day but I am out of the voting just now. Worked at the pictures as usual. Had a letter from Kate tonight. Mr. McColl is dead.

Wednesday, Nov. 7

Printed last of platinum paper I have. Not so smoky as yesterday. Got bunch of pictures from Kate tonight.

Thursday, Nov. 8

Cloudy most all day and looked like rain or snow. Dave and I burned a fire guard on the west of the place this forenoon. I went to Sapphire this afternoon to mail photos and get some crackers.

Friday, Nov. 9

Worked at fixing up paintings about all day. Dave planted out about 60 red raspberry plants and did other odd jobs I had for him. I got no letters tonight.

Saturday, Nov. 10

Nice warm day. I retouched some portrait negatives this morning. Did considerable printing. Called at Burlingames this evening and got my mail.

Sunday, Nov. 11

It has been a windy day and some rain of a thin nature has fallen. Tonight it has grown suddenly cold. I had dinner at Burlingames. Have written several letters tonight.

Monday, Nov. 12
Ther.: 24+

Been cold all day with some snow squalls. It seems to be hard for me to keep warm. Mounted some pictures, chopped some wood, and kept up fires. Had letters from mother and Dewey.

Tuesday, Nov. 13
Ther.: 18+, 24+

Winter cold for this region. I can do nothing at my photo work. Called at Arthur Millers this forenoon, and at Dr. Grimshawe's, Mr. Burgesses and the Nicholsons this afternoon.

Wednesday, Nov. 14

A change came in the weather today and this afternoon it has snowed hard. I never saw so much snow here in Nov. It keeps cold, too. It makes me slow in getting ready to go north. Dave worked here this forenoon and put paper around the trunks of young apple trees.

Thursday, Nov. 15

Snow about 5 inches deep this morning. It thawed a little and then turned colder again. I get on with my work very slow. It is hard getting wood in the snow.

Friday, Nov. 16

It grew milder today and the snow went down some. I worked at packing away things all day. Called at Burlingames tonight and got my mail. Had letters from Kate and Nellie.

Saturday, Nov. 17

Been very busy packing trunk, writing letters and copy for new list and packing pictures to send to agencies. Had dinner with Dave's folks and supper at Burlingames. It has rained about all day and storms pretty hard tonight.

Sunday, Nov. 18

Rain all last night and all today. I could not get down to the Lake as I planned. Had breakfast at Dave Miller's and dinner at Burlingames. I wrote a lot of letters today, so no great loss without some gain.

Monday, Nov. 19

Drizzled considerable today. Alfred Miller did not come for me as I expected, but is going to get my baggage loaded so as to start early tomorrow. I came down to McGuire for tonight so as to get ready for the train tomorrow.

Tuesday, Nov. 20

Alfred Miller got down with my baggage in time and I took the train from Lake Toxaway this forenoon saw Hiram a moment at Brevard. Had a long wait in Asheville but am on the Cincinnati sleeper tonight.

Wednesday, Nov. 21

We were late getting to Cincinnati this morning. I left at 1 o'clock this afternoon and got home after 11 o'clock tonight. Kate and mother were up waiting for me. It has grown cold this afternoon and tonight.

Thursday, Nov. 22

Been cloudy and cool all day. I got my trunk this forenoon all right. Been down town a couple of times.

Friday, Nov. 23

Fairly pleasant today. I did a number of errands about town and wrote some letters.

Saturday, Nov. 24

Been a fine day. I did errands about town. Nettie West went to Ann Arbor this forenoon. Will came up tonight to see me. Bert Kenny brought another load of wood and took supper with us.

Sunday, Nov. 25

More or less cloudy all day. I took a walk with Dewey this afternoon down the railroad to where the locomotives take water. We saw three fast trains take water there. Kate suffers with toothache tonight.

Monday, Nov. 26

Rained some this forenoon but cleared up this afternoon. We all went to a concert tonight and had a nice time. Lizzie Steptor is staying tonight with Nellie.

Tuesday, Nov. 27

Cloudy most of today. I begin to think we will be obliged to move soon. I did some retouching on portrait negatives I brought from the south.

Wednesday, Nov. 28

Snow squall this morning but melted right off. Quite pleasant this afternoon. I looked about again for a house but with no satisfaction. Mounted a few paintings.

Thursday, Nov. 29

Thanksgiving day. We had our dinner all by ourselves. It has been a beautiful day. We feel all broke up about having to move and not knowing where we can go.

Friday, Nov. 30

Cloudy and some misty all day. I worked at making some prints on developing paper. Attended lodge tonight. It was election of officers.

Saturday, December 1

Grown cooler today. Some of my cards came and I mounted up some paintings.

Sunday, Dec. 2

This has been a raw chilly day. Dewey and I walked out to the old farm. We attended church out there and had dinner and supper with Will's folks. Will brought up back to town in his carriage.

Monday, Dec. 3

Ther.: 16+

A few snow flakes today and a mixture of clouds and sunshine. I did a lot of picture mounting. It is quite sharply cold tonight. Kate had a bad spell with her eyes this forenoon.

Tuesday, Dec. 4
Ther.: 20+, 38+

Warmer today. I did up and sent off a good many packages of pictures. Trimed and mounted a lot of paintings tonight.

Wednesday, Dec. 5

A snow storm this morning covered the ground. It has turned to rain tonight. We went to the Cong. Church for dinner. Worked at the pictures all day.

Thursday, Dec. 6

So warm this morning it melted all the snow. It turned colder this afternoon. I marked and did up a lot of pictures and sent south.

Friday, Dec. 7
Ther.: 16+

Quite cold today. Been marking and mounting pictures all day except while we were down town to start on our Christmas shopping.

Saturday, Dec. 8
Ther.: 32+

Weather moderated today. Nellie had a dizzy spell and fell to the floor this morning and has been sick ever since she seems to have the grip. Kate, Dewey and I had supper at the Methodist Fair down town tonight.

Sunday, Dec. 9

Continues cloudy and threatening to storm. Nellie is pretty sick with the grip. Dewey and I took a walk this afternoon. Kate and I attended church tonight.

Monday, Dec. 10

Very dry and slippery this morning. Been a dark and cloudy day. I learned that we will have to move by Jan.y. 1st. Kate called the doctor in the night to see Nellie her throat was so bad, but she seems to be doing well today.

Tuesday, Dec. 11

The sun shone the most of today, and I printed a batch of platinum photos. Kate and I went house hunting this afternoon, but are not satisfied as yet.

Wednesday, Dec. 12

Grew warmer today. Made another batch of prints today. Sent off a lot of pictures this afternoon.

Thursday, Dec. 13
Ther.: 43+

Been very cloudy and misty all day, and quite warm, too. I spent most of my time in fixing up and mailing pictures. Have decided to rent the John L. Smith house. Mrs. Lizzie Webster came on the cars and made us a call, then went on out to Webster.

Friday, Dec. 14

Another dark day. I went to Ann Arbor to do some trading. Had dinner at aunt Hannah Price's. The stores are trimmed for the Christmas show. Mother has gone out to Webster for a day or two.

Saturday, Dec. 15

It has grown much cooler today. I mounted up a lot of pictures as my card mounts came yesterday. Dewey is quite sick with a cold.

Sunday, Dec. 16

This has been a pleasant day and the sun shone, but tonight it is clouding up. Dewey is almost down sick with his cough. Will brought ma back tonight.

Monday, Dec. 17

Rather cloudy and squally looking today. I printed up some pictures to keep business going. Aunt Ann Spoor fell down today and hurt her arm badly. Dewey was better today and Nellie went to school again.

Tuesday, Dec. 18

Ther.: 13+

Cold morning. Nice, bright day and I made a good batch of prints.

Walked out to the farm this afternoon to get some glass. Jennie McColl came on the train tonight and is staying tonight.

Wednesday, Dec. 19

Ther.: 16+

Another fine day. Millicent came for Jennie this forenoon. Have been doing little odd jobs all day.

Thursday, Dec. 20

A morning of fair promise soon turned to a dark and cloudy day, and this evening a snow storm is on. Picture printing did not amount to much. Did some more Christmas shopping this forenoon.

Friday, Dec. 21

Ther.: 30+, 32+

All out door white with snow this morning and it has been storming slightly all day. Don came and got Nellie to go out to Webster to the Christmas doings tonight. It is colder tonight.

Saturday, Dec. 22

Quite cold again. I printed and finished platinum paper. Don brought Nellie back this afternoon. I took Dewey to a "Moving Picture" show tonight, but it was no good.

Sunday, Dec. 23

Ther.: 7+, 4+

Cold, crisp weather now. I just loafed and did some reading today. Kate and I called at E. Cransons late this afternoon.

Monday, Dec. 24

Ther.: 2+, 18+

Very cold this morning. I finished a batch of pictures that I had printed before I left Sapphire. The rest of the folks went to the Christmas Tree doings at the Methodist church tonight. Don and his Elsie called tonight. A number of Christmas presents have come.

Tuesday, Dec. 25

Ther.: 13+

Christmas and a very fine day. Will and his folks went to Ova McColl's at Homer, Mich. and I have the horse and buggy here. We had many presents from friends and relatives. Don and his girl were here to dinner. Kate, Mother and Dewey drove out to Webster this afternoon.

Wednesday, Dec. 26

Ther.: 30+

We have been tearing up carpets and getting things as near as possible ready to move out of this house tomorrow. It has moderated greatly for which we are glad.

Thursday, Dec. 27

We moved today and it has been hard work for us all. Ma went out to the old home with Will to stay a few days.

Friday, Dec. 28

Been at work all day with our settling. It still continues mild weather. The telephone was connected up today.

Saturday, Dec. 29

Continued our work of settling. It looks stormy all the time. Mother came back this afternoon, and Will's folks came down on the train from Homer and had the buggy to go out home with. I went as a bearer to take the body of a dead mason to the train tonight.

Sunday, Dec. 30

Been raining about all day. I spent the day reading and sleeping.

Monday, Dec. 31

The last day of '06. I had a team haul the rest of the coal wood and potatoes as it has been a warm day. The snow was all gone this morning. I made an order for postcards for my Highlands and Whiteside trade.
