

HENRY H. SCADIN DAIRIES

1911

Sunday, January 1

Ther.: 20+, 32+

Looked stormy all day. Have been close at home all day.

Monday, Jan. 2

Ther.: 50+

Quite warm all day. I went up to Kate's place this forenoon to see about the wood cutting. Went into Amherst this afternoon.

Tuesday, Jan. 3

Ther.: 48+, 36+

Many showers during today. Kate and I finished husking the corn in the barn this forenoon. Did considerable writing and figuring on accounts.

Wednesday, Jan. 4

Ther.: 4+

Grown cold today. Kate and Nellie went over to Northampton and made a visit to Miss Fales and her mother. I made a few postcards.

Thursday, Jan. 5

Ther.: 0, 22+, 18+

Sharp morning. I made a batch of postcards today. Had a number of letters tonight.

Friday, Jan. 6

Ther.: 6+, 20+

Worked at postcards again today. There was a flurry of snow this evening.

Saturday, Jan. 7

Ther.: 20+, 38+, 36+

Mild day. I did some writing and pattered about all day. Kate and Dewey drove to Amherst this afternoon.

Sunday, Jan. 8

Ther.: 38+

Mild day. Mrs. Brown came out and had dinner with us, and Kate took her home with the horse and buggy this afternoon.

Monday, Jan. 9

Ther.: 30+, 26+

Some squalls of snow today. I began printing some platinum paper.

Tuesday, Jan. 10

Ther.: 10+, 38+, 22+

A very pleasant day. Kate and Nellie went to Springfield to do shopping. I printed more and then finished the prints.

Wednesday, Jan. 11

Ther.: 30+

Cloudy day and looking stormy. Mr. Page did papering for me. We all attended a lecture at Amherst tonight. Kate, Dewey and I went in with the horse and buggy and took some apples I had sold.

Thursday, Jan. 12

Ther.: 34+

Warm sort of winter day. Kate and I picked over apples in the cellar this forenoon and took out all rotten ones. Mr. Page finished the papering. Mr. Campbell came and got 4 barrels of apples.

Friday, Jan. 13

Ther.: 30+

Concert.

Dark and cloudy day. I did some writing this forenoon and went to Amherst this afternoon. Went to a concert tonight at College Hall. The roads are very slippery.

Saturday, Jan. 14

Ther.: 34+

Another dark day with sprinkles of rain and sleet. We hung some pictures in the sitting room.

Sunday, Jan. 15

Ther.: 30+

Mild and cloudy. Kate and I went to church this forenoon, Dewey not feeling well. Wrote a number of letters this afternoon and evening.

Monday, Jan. 16

Ther.: 2+, 12+, 6+

Been a cold day. I worked in the shop all day making postcards.

Tuesday, Jan. 17

Ther.: 2-, 16+, 8+

More cold. Made postcards today.

Wednesday, Jan. 18

Ther.: 2-, 6+

Cold and clear. Kate and I went to Amherst on the trolley this forenoon and I took 1/2 bu. apples along. Kate and I drove up to Pelham Town Hall to a goose supper tonight. The roads are icy.

Thursday, Jan. 19

Ther.: 10+, 34+

Grew warmer today. Kate drove into Amherst this forenoon to get feed. It seems like a thaw again tonight.

Friday, Jan. 20

Ther.: 24+, 40+, 32+

Very nice day. I did a printing on platinum paper, but could not finish them. Had a job cleaning out the kitchen stove this afternoon.

Saturday, Jan. 21

Ther.: 32+, 38+, 34+

Some rain, and very cloudy all day. Developed plat. prints this forenoon. Chopped down some small wild cherry by the brook this afternoon, they having black knot.

Sunday, Jan. 22

Ther.: 26+, 20+

Growing colder. I stayed at home all day. Wrote some letters, and Dewey and I walked out to the woods and lowlands.

Monday, Jan. 23

Ther.: 11+

Nice winter day. I drove to Amherst this forenoon to get some freight. Mr. Campbell was here for more apples this afternoon.

Tuesday, Jan. 24

Ther.: 8+, 38+, 25+

A very fine day. I printed and finished a batch of platinum today.

Wednesday, Jan. 25

Ther.: 24+, 40+, 34+

Moderate day but gathering clouds. I went up on the hill place and chopped wood this forenoon. Kate drove to Amherst this afternoon. I cleaned out the box stall and mulched some apple trees.

Thursday, Jan. 26

Ther.: 28+, 38+, 32+

Cloudy most of today, and a mixture of rain and snow tonight. I put some fresh sand in the hen houses this afternoon. Mr. Campbell came fore more apples today.

Friday, Jan. 27

Ther.: 34+, 38+

I drove over town this forenoon, did some trading and got a load of feed. It rained while I was coming home and is raining hard tonight.

Saturday, Jan. 28

Ther.: 34+, 32+

Great deal of water about this morning. I worked at mounting pictures most of the day. There has been a very high wind.

Sunday, Jan. 29

Ther.: 20+, 34+, 30+

Pleasant this forenoon but cloudy this afternoon and a snow storm from the south east tonight. I have been close at home all day.

Monday, Jan. 30

Ther.: 16+

A heavy gale this afternoon and a cold wave coming on. I made some postcards.

Tuesday, Jan. 31

Ther.: 4+, 18+, 14+

Cold. I went to Amherst this forenoon. Kate and I walked over and called on the Campbells and Rev. Adams folks this afternoon. It is clouding up tonight.

Wednesday, February 1

Ther.: 0, 16+

Very sharp morning, but a pleasant day. I printed and finished Platinum paper. Kate drove into town this afternoon. Dewey unable to go to school this week.

Thursday, Feb. 2

Ther.: 12+, 22+, 34+

Some snow and freezing mists all day, and very dark, so the ground-hog could not see his shadow.

Friday, Feb. 3

Ther.: 0

Cold and quiet. I made a batch of Postcards. A man came to look over our land who is looking for an orchard location. Snow squalls this afternoon.

Saturday, Feb. 4

Ther.: 22+

Sick horse this morning. Rained all the forenoon and made the snow all slush. I went to town this afternoon.

Sunday, Feb. 5

Ther.: 30+, 26+, 16+

Grown colder today. Kate has a cold and did not go to church. I went to represent the family. Kate and Dewey took a ride this afternoon up the hill to the Sawyer place.

Monday, Feb. 6

Ther.: 0, 12+

Cold day. I took the horse up to the Brewer place and got Mr. Adams' cutter this afternoon. There has a little more snow fallen.

Tuesday, Feb. 7

Ther.: 10+, 22+, 20+

Snow storm last night and this forenoon, and several inches have falling making sleighing. I worked some at mounting pictures.

Wednesday, Feb. 8

Ther.: 14+, 20+

Kate drove to town this afternoon to have a tooth filled. Quite a snow storm came on toward evening but did not last. A card announcing a boy baby at Dorrs on the 5th came tonight.

Thursday, Feb. 9

Ther.: 20+, 34+

Moderate weather again. I went to town this afternoon and got a hair cut.

Friday, Feb. 10

Ther.: 20+, 34+

Snow squall this morning, but quite a pleasant day. I went into town about noon. The sleighing is good now.

Saturday, Feb. 11

I went into town on the trolley this forenoon.

Sunday, Feb. 12

Weather mild. Kate and I drove to Amherst and she took Mrs. Brown and baby for a ride. The sleighing is wearing out in town.

Monday, Feb. 13

Ther.: 30+, 34+, 28+

Been cloudy all day and seemed like a storm. I worked at making some 8 x 10 prints o Cyleo paper.

Tuesday, Feb. 14

Ther.: 22+, 18+

Another cloudy day. I worked at writing letters and doing up pictures to send away.

Wednesday, Feb. 15

Ther.: 5+, 6+

I went to Springfield today to look at pictures on exhibition there. Called at Mrs. Fales in Northampton. We all went in town to hear a concert tonight, but the company failed to show up.

Thursday, Feb. 16

Ther.: 6-, 34+, 14+

Cold morning. I made platinum prints today. Kate drove in to get some corn this afternoon.

Friday, Feb. 17

Ther.: 24+, 30+, 32+

A freezing rain during part of today. I finished platinum prints this forenoon. Wrote some letters and ordered a typewriter this afternoon.

Saturday, Feb. 18

Ther.: 34+, 40+, 28+

A very fine day. I went in town this forenoon to do a few errands. Kate took a sleigh ride this afternoon as the snow is melting off.

Sunday, Feb. 19
Ther.: 20+, 30+

Another fine day. The Brown's from Amherst came out and had dinner with us.

Monday, Feb. 20
Ther.: 11+, 26+, 14+

Some snow fell during today. The air is very chilly. I made some prints on Cyko paper.

Tuesday, Feb. 21
Ther.: 8+, 6+

Bright, cold day. I made a printing of platinum paper. Mr. E. H. Boyden called on me this afternoon. Kate drove to Amherst and got two express packages.

Wednesday, Feb. 22
Ther.: 14+, 26+

Fairly pleasant day, and I made platinum prints. There was no school today, and Dewey had a holiday.

Thursday, Feb. 23
Ther.: 10+, 26+, 22+

Bright day. Finished Platinum prints this forenoon and developing paper this afternoon.

Friday, Feb. 24
Ther.: 20+, 38+, 20+

A fierce snow squall just before noon, then clear and pleasant all the afternoon. Kate drove to town and got an express package. Mounted up some paintings.

Saturday, Feb. 25
Ther.: 20+, 40+

Mild day. I worked at mounting pictures. Kate and Nellie took a trip to Amherst and Hadley.

Sunday, Feb. 26
Ther.: 26+, 48+, 40+

Quite warm. Spent the day in reading and writing.

Monday, Feb. 27
Ther.: 40+, 30+

Water and ice all about today. Kate and I drove to Amherst at noon and she started to attend the Poultry Short Course at the Agr. Coll. I received my new writing machine. Kate came home on trolley this evening.

Tuesday, Feb. 28
Ther.: 12+, 14+

Pretty cold today. Kate was at the Poultry School all day. I mounted pictures and did some up to send away.

Wednesday, March 1
Ther.: 11+, 20+

Pleasant day. Kate started off on the early car to be at a lecture. This afternoon she was at a meeting of the Art Section of the Women's Club, at Brown's home. I went into town with some mail at noon. Tonight the school children had a little indian play at the school house.

Thursday, March 2
Ther.: 20+, 38+, 26+

Mounted a lot of pictures. Took a little walk over the place that joins us on the east. I found it a lovely place.

Friday, March 3
Ther.: 14+, 34+, 28+

Some sunshine, some clouds, some wind and a snow squall shows that it is March. Kate came home from College early this afternoon. The work tires her. Miss Ripley visited Nellie today.

Saturday, March 4
Ther.: 22+

Kate and Dewey went with others to visit a poultry farm near Northampton. I went into town for mail and express this evening.

Sunday, March 5
Ther.: 2+, 14+

Pretty cold this morning. A young man from Conn. took dinner with us and looked the farm over. Kate and I took a walk over on George Page's place this afternoon.

Monday, March 6
Ther.: 18+

We had a windy snow storm this forenoon. A lot of feathery snow fell and it is winter again. Kate and Dewey went to the College for this forenoon.

Tuesday, March 7
Ther.: 22+, 34+, 20+

Biting cold this morning. Kate and Dewey went to College again this forenoon. The day has been pleasant. I pruned the young grape vines this afternoon.

Wednesday, March 8
Ther.: 1+, 46+, 22+

Cold this morning. I made a batch of pictures this forenoon. Kate and Dewey were at the College most of the day.

Thursday, March 9
Ther.: 14+, 50+, 32+

A very nice day. I worked all day in the shop. Kate went to college this morning and Dewey drove over this afternoon. Storm indications tonight.

Friday, March 10
Ther.: 34+, 48+

Quite a snow squall this forenoon. Kate and Dewey finished going to College this forenoon. I worked on postcards.

Saturday, March 11

Another pleasant day. I finished pruning the old grape vine, and fixed up some pictures which I took to mail this evening.

Sunday, March 12

Ther.: 36+

Cloudy all day and some showers. Read, wrote and rested all day.

Monday, March 13

Ther.: 26+, 26+

A pleasant day but chilly north wind. I went to Town Meeting at the Center today. It was about an all day session.

Tuesday, March 14

Ther.: 18+, 50+, 28+

I went to a lecture at the Agr. College this forenoon and it was a splendid one by a man from the west. Came home at noon and trimed an apple tree this afternoon. Kate and I called at Mr. Adams this evening.

Wednesday, March 15

Ther.: 34+, 14+

Rain during last night and this morning. We all went to an entertainment at Amherst tonight going in mud and coming home in a blizzard.

Thursday, March 16

Ther.: 8+, 14+

The worst day of this winter. I have felt miserable all day. Dewey and Nellie were at the Agr. College all day. Folks have gone to a doing at the church tonight.

Friday, March 17

Ther.: 8+, 27+

Still feel a little wobbly. Went to Amherst this afternoon to get some express.

Saturday, March 18

Ther.: 32+

Very cloudy all day. I did nothing but sit around and write and read some.

Sunday, March 19

Ther.: 28+, 40+, 32+

Pleasant this forenoon, grew cloudy this afternoon and snows hard tonight. I went up on Kate's place this forenoon.

Monday, March 20

Ther.: 34+

Several inches of damp snow this morning on the ground and clinging to trees and bushes. I tried to get a view of the Aldrich home for them. Spent the afternoon in lettering advertisement.

Tuesday, March 21

Ther.: 30+, 40+, 28+

Very nice day. I went to town this forenoon. Did some picture mounting this afternoon and chopped down an old apple tree east of the house.

Wednesday, March 22

Ther.: 28+, 56+

Cloudy some of the day and looking like rain. Mr. Brown had a man out looking at the farm this forenoon. Mr. Campbell was after more apples this afternoon.

Thursday, March 23

Ther.: 26+, 30+

Cool day, with considerable wind. I printed a batch of platinum.

Friday, March 24

Ther.: 12+, 22+

Clear, cold day. I drove over town this afternoon to get some feed.

Saturday, March 25

Ther.: 6+

Cold this morning. Kate and Nellie went to Springfield to see some pictures. It has been a bright day.

Sunday, March 26

Ther.: 22+, 60+

Warmer today. I went to church this forenoon. The air feels like the coming of spring.

Monday, March 27

Ther.: 40+, 30+

Been a rainy day. I mounted some pictures.

Tuesday, March 28

Ther.: 34+

Somewhat chilly today. I spent most of the day cleaning out the spring.

Wednesday, March 29

Ther.: 28+

A very pleasant day. Dewey and I went to Amherst this afternoon and had the doctor examine him. There was a squall of rain this evening.

Thursday, March 30

Ther.: 34+

Heavy rain during last night. I mounted pictures most of the day. Dewey took the horse to the smith and had her shod this afternoon.

Friday, March 31

Ther.: 30+

Somewhat blustering for the last day of March. There was several snow squalls. Worked all day at the pictures.

Saturday, April 1

Ther.: 22+, 34+, 24+

Kate's 50th birthday. A cold and windy day. A man and wife came out to look over our place this afternoon. Dewey and I hitched up the old mare on a stom boat and drew some manure.

Sunday, April 2

Ther.: 16+, 28+, 22+

A cold day. Mr. Brown brought out Pres. Butterfield of the Agr. College this afternoon.

Monday, April 3

Ther.: 14+, 26+

Cold this morning, but a pleasant day. I printed platinum paper. Drew some manure out on the field this afternoon.

Tuesday, April 4

Ther.: 14+, 31+

Another cold morning. Clouds came before noon and tonight it is snowing hard. I had a group negative to make at noon of a Sunday School class.

Wednesday, April 5

Ther.: 32+, 36+

Snow stayed on the ground all today, and it looks very wintry. Kate and Dewey went to Dr. Lancaster this afternoon to see about their glasses. It rains some tonight.

Thursday, April 6

Ther.: 40+, 68+, 60+

Today the snow all melted off. I worked at the pictures most of the day.

Friday, April 7

Ther.: 40+

I went to town this forenoon and had my hair cut. Kate and Willie went to Dr. Lancaster to see about glasses. Kate stayed and went to the concert tonight with Mrs. Brown, and I met them there. It was wonderful violin playing.

Saturday, April 8

Ther.: 24+

I sprayed some fruit trees this forenoon with Lime Sulphur. A man from Springfield was here to look at the place.

Sunday April 9

Ther.: 32+

A heavy snow came on during last night and it is very wintry today. I took the eggs we have saved for Mr. Brown over to him this afternoon.

Monday, April 10

Ther.: 21+, 50+

Quite frozen this morning. I did a lot of platinum printing but did not get all through. It became warm enough to melt off the snow.

Tuesday, April 11
Ther.: 21+, 50+

Cold this morning. Ernest Graves began working here today. I did more printing this forenoon and finished the lot the afternoon. It has been a perfectly clear day.

Wednesday, April 12
Ther.: 20+

A very pleasant day. I spent the day in Northampton attending "Suburban Day." Had a pleasant time, heard good speeches and think I may have learned something.

Thursday, April 13
Ther.: 20+, 56+

Frozen up hard this morning. Worked in the shop this forenoon and sprayed some apple trees with Lime-Sulphur this afternoon. Rev. Adams and family are staying with us tonight as their goods left for their new home today.

Friday, April 14
Ther.: 39+, 52+

The Adams' left this morning. I worked at the pictures all day. It has been cloudy with some rain.

Saturday, April 15
Ther.: 44+, 60+

A very pleasant day. Kate and Dewey went to Amherst this afternoon and took his bicycle in to be repaired. I did up and sent a lot of pictures for the Fairfield Inn, N.C.

Sunday, April 16
Ther.: 34+, 42+

A little ice this morning. A squall of snow this afternoon. A prof. and wife was out this way looking for a summer camp. We had a good Easter dinner.

Monday, April 17
Ther.: 27+

A chilly wind all day. Mr. Aldrich and Ernest came with the buzz saw and we sawed up our wood.

Tuesday, April 18
Ther.: 24+, 50+

Frozen hard this morning. Ernest came and split wood all day. I made postcards. Kate drove to Amherst this evening and got an express box and a bag of meal.

Wednesday, April 19
Ther.: 24+, 50+

Continues cold mornings. Not feeling very well. I have accomplished by little today. I dug 50 young raspberry plants this evening. Kate took Mrs. Page to a lecture tonight.

Thursday, April 20
Ther.: 36+, 50+

There was rain and almost snow this forenoon. I could see snow on the ground in the Berkshire Hills when the weather cleared. Worked at mounting pictures most of the day.

Friday, April 21

Ther.: 28+

A nice day. Ernest went to the station this forenoon and got the box of fruit trees. I am well pleased with them, and planted out a few this afternoon.

Saturday, April 22

Ther.: 34+, 50+, 34+

A raw day. Mounted and marked pictures. Hoed around some of the grape vines this evening.

Sunday, April 23

Ther.: 36+, 40+

Cold, disagreeable day. I went up and called on Mr. Presho this forenoon. Kate brought the preacher home to dinner.

Monday, April 24

Ther.: 30+, 62+, 50+

This has been a more spring like day. I did up some pictures to send to N.C., and took them to the P.O. this afternoon. Mr. Aldrich harrowed the ground where I am going to plant fruit trees.

Tuesday, April 25

Ther.: 36+, 76+

Ernest and I set out a strawberry bed and 42 fruit trees. Mr. Aldrich finished the plowing today. It has seemed like summer, but it is too dry for grass to come on.

Wednesday, April 26

Ther.: 28+

Cool this morning. I printed platinum paper today. We all went to a play in the Town Hall tonight and were late getting home.

Thursday, April 27

Ther.: 36+, 72+

Another warm, pleasant day. I finished the platinum prints. A Mr. Holcomb came out to look over our place this afternoon.

Friday, April 28

Ther.: 42+, 80+, 60+

Real warm today. I washed our buggy this morning. Went into town this afternoon to send a package by express to Baker.

Saturday, April 29

Ther.: 40+, 86+

Very warm all day. Mr. and Mrs. Halcomb were here today noon to look over the farm. A Mr. Dyer and wife from New York were here this afternoon to look, also. I completed setting the fruit trees this forenoon.

Sunday, April 30
Ther.: 50+, 72+

Breezy and some cooler today. It threatens to rain tonight, and we hope it will.

Monday, May 1

Cloudy with some sprinkling during the day. I did a little grafting. Went to town tonight and called at Brown's. Had a card from mother and she is to start tomorrow.

Tuesday, May 2
Ther.: 54+, 36+

It grew cold fast today. Kate and I drove up to Mrs. Sawyer's this morning. Nellie had a telegram from her father that Carrie, her half sister, was dead. Kate and I drove to Amherst this afternoon in search of harness and tools for farming, but got none.

Wednesday, May 3
Ther.: 30+, 42+, 32+

A cold, raw day and some squalls of snow. I went to Springfield and met mother at noon. We got home at 3 o'clock. I ordered a harness form the dealer at Northampton.

Thursday, May 4
Ther.: 22+, 54+

Frozen quite hard this morning. I went to the station to get mother's trunk this forenoon. This afternoon I dug around fruit trees and bushes.

Friday, May 5
Ther.: 26+, 64+

Warmer again. Ernest and I worked at cleaning up some tree tops for fence posts up on Kate's place, and I got real tired. Had a letter from Mr. Dyer tonight which seems as though we might sell the farm to him.

Saturday, May 6
Ther.: 30+

Did up a lot of pictures to send to Fairfield Inn, and took them to mail this afternoon when Dewy and I went to town to get our new harness for Jennie and bring home a new one horse wagon. It has been a nice day, but it is so very dry.

Sunday, May 7
Ther.: 36+, 80+

Been a warm pleasant day. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were here at dinner and spent the afternoon. I gave the cow a little outing in the orchard this evening.

Monday, May 8
Ther.: 46+, 82+

Warm and dry. Spent the forenoon in writing to Mr. Dyer about the farm. Kate and mother went to Amherst this afternoon. Mr. Bartlett came up this afternoon and we looked over the little little piece of land the Water Co. want to buy of us.

Tuesday, May 9

Ther.: 42+

No rain yet. I did up a package to send to Country Life. Went to Amherst this afternoon to sign a deed to the land. I watered a lot of trees tonight. Dewey's 13th birthday and some of the young folks came in tonight.

Wednesday, May 10

Ther.: 46+, 80+

Dewey was sick during last night, and all today. I went to Amherst this afternoon and finished up the land business with the Water Co. Had a letter from Mr. Dyer, stating that check would be sent to Mr. Brown to bind bargain for our farm.

Thursday, May 11

Ther.: 60+, 86+

Real summer day and so dry, with fires about doing large damage. We plowed some for garden this forenoon. This afternoon I went to Amherst and signed the agreement to sell our farm and received $400 on account.

Friday, May 12

Ther.: 60+, 82+

Dewey is sick and unable to attend school. I worked in the shop most all day. Tonight we are having lightning and thunder with a little rain which we hop will check the raging forest fires.

Saturday, May 13

Ther.: 54+, 72+

Worked in the shop at mounting and marking pictures. It has been cooler today.

Sunday, May 14

Ther.: 40+

Kate and mother went to church at Amherst this forenoon. Mr. Brock and I went up to Kate's place and got cowslip greens.

Monday, May 15

Ther.: 78+

A pleasant day, but getting dry again. I worked at pictures all day. Kate took Dewey to the doctor this afternoon. He feels very miserable lately.

Tuesday, May 16

Kate and mother started for Boston this morning for a stay of two or three days. It looks stormy in the morning, but cleared off this afternoon.

Wednesday, May 17

Been a very pleasant day. Kate and mother returned from Boston tonight, tired out, but satisfied with their trip.

Thursday, May 18

Ther.: 84+

Warm day. Ernest worked with Kate in cleaning hen yards and putting clean sand in them. There was just a little sprinkle for a few minutes then cleared off. I printed platinum.

Friday, May 19

I finished prints this forenoon. Kate and mother went to town this forenoon. We had a little shower this afternoon, and it is quite muggy weather.

Saturday, May 20

Ther.: 80+

Warm Weather. I set out some tomato plants this morning. It was misty this morning, but cleared up hot this afternoon.

Sunday, May 21

Kate and mother went to Amherst to church this forenoon.

Monday, May 22

Ther.: 94+

A very hot day. I did up a lot of pictures this forenoon, and drove in to Amherst this afternoon to send them off. It was a warm day to drive.

Tuesday, May 23

Ther.: 54+

Cool and foggy all day. Ernest came to help and we sprayed the fruit trees this forenoon and plowed and hoed among the small fruit and pear trees.

Wednesday, May 24

We had a couple of light showers today. Kate and I drove up to her place with the wagon this forenoon and got pea brush and some wild flowers. I went to Amherst toward evening.

Thursday, May 25

Ther.: 50+

Kate and I planted more garden this forenoon. There was a heavy thunder storm this afternoon, which wet the ground good.

Friday, May 26

Ther.: 52+

A nice day. We did some more gardening and I worked out the grape vines. We put out Dahlia bulbs this afternoon. Tonight I attended an organ recital at Amherst.

Saturday, May 27

Ther.: 50+, 88+

I drove to Mr. Bartlett's this morning to get fertilizer. Kate and mother drove to Amherst this afternoon to hear the student class singing. It got pretty warm this afternoon.

Sunday, May 28

Mr. and Mrs. Dyer were here a good share of the day looking over the place and making plans for the future. It is warm weather.

Monday, May 29

Kate and I drove to Amherst this forenoon and the deed was made out and all business done up transferring the farm to the Dyers. They came home with us and we visited Kate's place this afternoon. It has been a hot day.

Tuesday, May 30

Some clouds, but very nice day. Kate and I took supper with the Brown's tonight.

Wednesday, May 31

It was pleasant this morning, so I took mother on a trolley trip to Mt. Tom, but it clouded up badly soon after we got there and hurt the view. A shower came on as we came back.

Thursday, June 1

Ther.: 60+, 70+

We had a good rain last night. I mounted pictures this forenoon. Kate and I drove to Amherst this afternoon. Ernest finished planting corn today.

Friday, June 2

Ther.: 52+

It was cool this morning. I did a large printing, then took a nap and tonight I went to the Northampton Pageant, which is a fine show of a sort I never attended before. Had to walk home from Amherst.

Saturday, June 3

Finished Platinum prints both forenoon and afternoon. Kate and I made a sudden decision and went to the Northampton Pageant tonight. It was some chilly out of doors.

Sunday, June 4

Ther.: 44+

A beautiful day. I was up on Kate's place with a young man this forenoon looking over the woods.

Monday, June 5

Nellie left for Springfield this morning, where she is going to try working out. This afternoon it has rained some time.

Tuesday, June 6

Been rainy about all day and we need it badly. I went to Amherst this afternoon to do some errands. Took some hens over to Mr. Turcotts tonight that Kate sold him.

Wednesday, June 7

It continued rainy this forenoon and then cleared off nicely this afternoon. I sold the cow to Mr. Harris and took her over there this evening. We will miss the nice milk, cream and butter.

Thursday, June 8

Ther.: 49+

It has been very pleasant today. I did a large printing of platinum paper. Mrs. Brown and the baby, with her sister from Boston were here at dinner time.

Friday, June 9

Ther.: 80+

A warm beautiful day. Mr. Bartlett came this morning and I went up with him to look at Kate's place. Did finishing of prints. Went to town tonight to see Mr. Brown.

Saturday, June 10

Ther.: 82+

Another warm day. I printed and finished a batch of prints for color work. It grew cloudy during the afternoon and rains gently tonight.

Sunday, June 11

Cooler today and cloudy with some sprinklings. Mr. Brown came out this afternoon and we walked over Kate's place which he is going to buy of her. Kate and ma attended church in Amherst. Nellie came home for a little while this afternoon.

Monday, June 12

Some rain today and clouds all the time. Lightning and thunder tonight. I trimed and mounted pictures and this afternoon we got a fanning mill and cleaned up some buckwheat.

Tuesday, June 13

Heavy rain during last night and misty today. I continued mounting and marking of pictures.

Wednesday, June 14

Worked in the shop this forenoon. Went into town this afternoon to do some errands. It has stopped raining.

Thursday, June 15

Fairly pleasant day, though but little sunshine. I printed postcards today.

Friday, June 16

Did a variety of chores today and got ready for our trip to Vermont. This was the last day at school, and Kate and Dewey went down to the picnic this afternoon.

Saturday, June 17

Kate, Dewey and I rode by trolley to Greenfield this morning, and there took train for Putney, Vermont. We had dinner there, found out some about Kate's ancestors and saw the graves in the cemetery. Kate and Dewey came home then and I walked 10 miles across the mountains to Newfane. There were beautiful views from the high hill, looking over into New Hampshire to the east and to the Green Mountains to the west. I am some tired tonight.

Sunday, June 18

I walked to Brattleboro today. The scenery is fine along the river all the way. Brattleboro seems a fine city. By train I came to Northampton and trolley out home. We are glad we saw a little of Vermont.

Monday, June 19

Ther.: 86+

This afternoon Kate and I went to Mr. Brown's office made out the deed selling her land to him. It has been a hot day.

Tuesday, June 20

I printed and finished the last of my Platinum Paper, and will not get any more here. There was a little thunder shower after dinner. It has grown much cooler.

Wednesday, June 21

Worked in the shop all day, making postcards and prints from the Vermont films. The wind blew quite hard most all day and it has been cool. There was a deer out in the orchard this evening.

Thursday, June 22

Worked in the shop this forenoon. Dewey and I went to Amherst this afternoon, he to see the doctor and I to do some business at the Savings Bank. We had a small shower this afternoon.

Friday, June 23

Wrote letters and bundled up pictures. Dewey and mother took a ride to Pelham Hill this forenoon. I went to Amherst with pictures to send away this evening.

Saturday, June 24

Spent most of the day in mounting pictures. Kate, Mother and Dewey drove for a visit to the Rose Gardens near Hadley this afternoon.

Sunday, June 25

Cloudy all day. Read and wrote and stayed close at home all day.

Monday, June 26

Made postcards today. Weather damp but no rain. We are getting some berries from our strawberry patch.

Tuesday, June 27

A cloudy, muggy day. I finished 241 postcards. Kate, mother and Dewey drove to Amherst tonight to see the College decorations.

Wednesday, June 28

Ther.: 86+

A warm, close day. I mounted and marked pictures. Went barefoot this evening while hoeing in the garden. It is good for ones feet.

Thursday, June 29

Ther.: 82+

Pleasant, but so dry. Dewey and I drove to Amherst this afternoon. We tried to water some potato hills tonight.

Friday, June 30

A lovely day. Kate and I took a vacation and drove up the hills to Shutesbury and attended the 150th anniversary of the founding of the town. We had a pleasant time.

Saturday, July 1
Ther.: 90+

Hot day. Worked in the shop all day. Went to town this evening to mail letters and do errands.

Sunday, July 2
Ther.: 94+

Very warm day. I went to church with Kate this forenoon. Kate and mother attended a tent meeting at Pelham Hill this afternoon.

Monday, July 3
Ther.: 98+

Very hot day. I marked and did my pictures to send away, taking them to the P.O. tonight. We read reports of great suffering in the cities from the heat.

Tuesday, July 4
Ther.: 100+

Hottest day yet, and we are glad we are in the country. Tonight we went down to Graves' to see their fire-works.

Wednesday, July 5
Ther.: 98+

More hot weather, but tempered this afternoon by a fine shower, that we so much needed. I went in town with mail this morning then helped Ernest spray all the potatoes. This evening Kate and I drove up to Brewers.

Thursday, July 6
Ther.: 94+

Pretty hot yet. Kate and mother drove to Amherst this forenoon. I made a printing of postcard. Worked in the garden a little. Felt the effects of the heat today.

Friday, July 7
Ther.: 94+

Much fresher air today and we all feel better. Kate went to Springfield to see Nellie and do some trading. I drove over to Amherst with her this morning so she got an early car. Did some work in the garden.

Saturday, July 8
Ther.: 86+

Pleasant day. Made up the last of my postcards. Kate and Dewey drove to Amherst this afternoon. Rev. Adams is here tonight.

Sunday, July 9
Ther.: 92+

Very warm. Did nothing but read and loaf today.

Monday, July 10
Ther.: 94+

I went with mother and Mrs. Groves this afternoon to Laurel Park, where they will attend the Chautauqua. It has been dreadful hot all day.

Tuesday, July 11

Ther.: 94+

Very hot day. I did up some packages of pictures to send away, and took them to mail this afternoon.

Wednesday, July 12

Ther.: 92+

Had to go in to Amherst this morning with more pictures to mail. It continues to be hot.

Thursday, July 13

Ther.: 89+

Pleasant day and not so hot. Kate and Mrs. Page drove in town this forenoon to do trading. I have been packing up negatives getting ready to ship.

Friday, July 14

Ther.: 60+

Kate and Dewey went to Laurel Park today to be with ma a couple of days. I took them to Amherst and got the horse shod as I returned.

Saturday, July 15

I worked all day at packing negatives. It has been a pleasant day.

Sunday, July 16

Ther.: 86+

Very pleasant day. Nellie came home for the afternoon and then Dewey came and Kate later. Nellie returned to Springfield tonight. Kate and Dewey report a good time at Laurel Park.

Monday, July 17

There were some very light showers today. I helped Kate wash and went on with my packing.

Tuesday, July 18

A beautiful day. I picked raspberries and some blueberries. Tried to make photos of Kate and Dewey.

Wednesday, July 19

Dewey and I went to Boston this forenoon by train on the Ver. Cen. and B. & A. We put up at the Castle Square Hotel, and this afternoon we took in a good lot of sightseeing, The Navy Yard, Bunker Hill, the old churches, Markets, slum district etc. Tonight we went to the Theater.

Thursday, July 20

We had a great trip today, going by steamer to Gloucester, and then by trolley around the North Shore stopping at Rockport and going out on the Rocky Coast. The scenery was very fine and we have enjoyed the day. Dewey is real tired tonight.

Friday, July 21

This forenoon we visited the Youth's Companion Building and the Museum of Art. After dinner we walked through the Fens to the Cambridge bridge then took trolley for Harvard College where we got a guide and visited some of the buildings and the wonderful Glass Flowers. We saw Motion pictures tonight.

Saturday, July 22

We got out early this forenoon and took trolley to Worcester and from there we got a fast trolley to Springfield and so on up home where we arrived about 4 o'clock. I guess Dewey and I have had a trip we will always remember.

Sunday, July 23

Still very dry. Went to church this forenoon. Took a nap and rested this afternoon.

Monday, July 24

Today the long drouth was broken by a heavy rain. I helped Kate on the washing and did some mounting of pictures.

Tuesday, July 25

More rain last night. Very pleasant all of today. Mrs. Fales made us a visit, and Kate took her for a ride. I worked at the pictures most of the day.

Wednesday, July 26

Ther.: 48+

Worked on pictures this forenoon. Went to Amherst and Northampton this afternoon. Bought a new trunk and hand bag.

Thursday, July 27

Ther.: 52+

Worked at the pictures this forenoon and drove to Amherst this afternoon to get my new trunk. Hoed the potatoes this afternoon.

Friday, July 28

Ther.: 62+

It has been rainy most of the day. I worked at the pictures all day.

Saturday, July 29

Went to town both today noon and tonight to send away pictures. It kept me busy packing them to ship.

Sunday, July 30

Hot very pleasant today, but it did not rain. Spent the day in reading and writing. Kate, mother and Dewey went to church this forenoon.

Monday, July 31

Ther.: 90+

Mounted a lot of pictures this forenoon. Kate and I picked some blueberries this afternoon. It grew very warm during the day.

Tuesday, August 1

Did up more bundles of pictures this forenoon. Kate and I went to Amherst this afternoon and called at Brown's and took supper with them.

Wednesday, Aug. 2

Worked at getting off pictures again today, sending this lot to Highlands, N.C.

Thursday, Aug. 3

Busy today with packing up different things in the shop and cleaning out rubbish.

Friday, Aug. 4

I continued packing things in the shop. Rest of the folks went to a Sunday School picnic at Orient Grove today.

Saturday, Aug. 5

I went to Northampton this forenoon to get the pictures I have had on sale there. Mounted some portraits of the folks and did more packing this afternoon. It has been real warm.

Sunday, Aug. 6

A fine day. Nellie came home from Springfield at noon and stayed till night. Miss Fales and sister Mrs. Still, called on us this afternoon.

Monday, Aug. 7

Warm day. Getting very dry again. Kate and I drove to Amherst this afternoon.

Tuesday, Aug. 8

Busy with packing and nailing up boxes about all day. Called at Mr. Campbell's this evening as Kate and Dewey went to the Tent meeting.

Wednesday, Aug. 9

More packing work this forenoon. Kate and I drove to Amherst this afternoon to do some trading. It has been a hot day. I called at some of the neighbors tonight.

Thursday, Aug. 10

Ther.: 94+

A very warm day. I finished packing my trunk and suit case and am ready to start south tomorrow.

Friday, Aug. 11

Dewey took me and the baggage to the train this morning and I started south. It has been a hot day, but the trip on the water about New York I enjoyed. Took sleeper at Washington for Asheville.

Saturday, Aug. 12

Was in No. Carolina when I awoke this morning. It was so hot I got very tired of travel today. There were showers as we neared Asheville, but they did not make it much cooler. I got to Brevard tonight and am with Hiram.

Sunday, Aug. 13

Got my trunk today and things seem all right. There was a heavy shower at noon. Have been writing some letters and resting.

Monday, Aug. 14

Very nice day. Some showers about but none here. I took a walk out a little ways this afternoon and saw several new houses.

Tuesday, Aug. 15

Counted up pictures at the drug store and got pay for what was sold. Took Hiram's camera and went to Davidson River School to make a group photo. It rained hard and I got some wet.

Wednesday, Aug. 16

I walked out to the Jennings farm this forenoon. Made a call on Mrs. Jacobs this afternoon. It has been a hot day, but without any rain.

Thursday, Aug. 17

Ther.: 86+

It has been a hot day. I went to the Jennings farm this forenoon and tried to get some views. Having been making some calls and writing to Kate this afternoon.

Friday, Aug. 18

Warm and cloudy all day, but tonight it turned cool. I took a tramp out in the mountains this afternoon. Had a card from Kate tonight.

Saturday, Aug. 19

I took quite a long trip up to Selica and then up Cathy's Creek, where they run lumber and wood down out of the mountains in a "Flume" of water. It turned hot again today.

Sunday, Aug. 20

I came to Lake Toxaway today and am staying with the Raines. Was at the Inn this afternoon.

Monday, Aug. 21

Came on up to Sapphire this forenoon and had dinner at Mrs. Crisps, when I saw the Aikens. Called this afternoon at Morrows, Holmes, and Millers. Am at Burlingames tonight.

Tuesday, Aug. 22

Visited with Mr. Burlingame this forenoon. Went up to Fairfield this afternoon and settled for pictures sold. It has been a fine day.

Wednesday, Aug. 23

This has been a beautiful day. I walked down to the Lake this morning and came on to Brevard this afternoon. Had letters from Kate and mother. Nellie is home and real sick.

Thursday, Aug. 24

I took Hiram's camera and went to a Confederate Veterans picnic at Davidsons River this afternoon and tried to get a group picture for him. A card from Kate says Nellie may have to go to a hospital.

Friday, Aug. 25

I came to Hendersonville this forenoon and am at Baker's. Was out at Laurel Park this afternoon. Went to moving picture show tonight.

Saturday, Aug. 26

I walked out to Fruitland this forenoon and made a visit to the Thompson family and looked over that section some. I rather like it out there. Came down to Tryon tonight and am at Conners.

Sunday, Aug. 27

It is warm weather here. Mr. Howes and I took a walk up towards the mountains to look at some property, but I don't see any chance here for us.

Monday, Aug. 28

There was a heavy shower today noon. Mr. Conner and I called on Mr. Morton's folks and walked up the valley a ways. I visited with Mr. Howes some this afternoon.

Tuesday, Aug. 29

Rainy all day. I left Tryon on the noon train but it was behind time, and we were stalled on the Saluda grade, so did not get to Hendersonville till 3:00 P.M. Came on to Brevard tonight.

Wednesday, Aug. 30

Nearly a steady rain all day. I spent the day reading and writing. Had a letter from Kate and she writes that Nellie is now seriously ill.

Thursday, Aug. 31

Rain and drizzle more or less all day. A card from Kate says Nellie is worse and I am fearful of the outcome.

Friday, September 1

This has been a pleasant day without rain. Had a letter from mother, but no better news from Nellie. I went out and tried some exposures for painted work this afternoon.

Saturday, Sept. 2

Another nice day, but rather hot. I took a camera and went to See Off, a place up on the mountains 5 miles from town. The view is fine. A card from mother says Nellie was a bit better that day.

Sunday, Sept. 3

I got a letter from Kate about noon saying Nellie was not expected to live, and I packed my trunk at once and started for home on the train this afternoon, going by Spartanburg, S.C.

Monday, Sept. 4

Traveled fast and hard all day and succeed in reaching home late tonight, finding that Nellie is alive yet, but no better.

Tuesday, Sept. 5

Kate and I visited Nellie at the hospital this forenoon. The poor girls looks very sick, but her doctor thinks she has a better chance to live than any time since she came to the hospital. Went to Springfield and got Nellie's things.

Wednesday, Sept. 6

It rained this forenoon. Dewey and I drove to the station and got my trunk this afternoon. Kate went to see Nellie, but did not bring much encouragement home with her. The afternoon has been very pleasant.

Thursday, Sept. 7

No rain today and fairly pleasant. Kate went to see Nellie this afternoon and found no apparent change in her condition. I was up to the Agr. College to see dwarf apple trees.

Friday, Sept. 8

Rain this forenoon. Kate went to see Nellie again this afternoon and found no change.

Saturday, Sept. 9

Rained hard this forenoon and drizzled this afternoon. I went with Kate to see Nellie this afternoon. She seemed much brighter than usual.

Sunday, Sept. 10

A bright, pleasant day. Kate and mother went to see Nellie this afternoon. Kate fears she is not really improving.

Monday, Sept. 11

It threatened rain a good deal today, but did not storm much. Kate found Nellie better this afternoon. I dug a bushel of potatoes this afternoon.

Tuesday, Sept. 12

A very fine day. Went into town this afternoon as Kate went to see Nellie. I called on Mr. and Mrs. Mills at their studio. Kate did not find Nellie as well today.

Wednesday, Sept. 13

Wind went to the north today and it grew cool, with prospects of frost tonight. I picked a lot of the Fox grapes for juice, and some tame ones to eat. The doctor claims Nellie is better.

Thursday, Sept. 14

Ther.: +

A hard frost this morning that has done much damage to gardens and crops. Kate and mother spent the day at Northampton. Nellie continues to seem better.

Friday, Sept. 15

Warmer today with mists and rains tonight. I went to the agricultural college this afternoon, and called at Brown's as I came back. Kate went to Northampton to see Nellie and found her still better.

Saturday, Sept. 16

Very pleasant day. Kate did not go to see Nellie today, but telephoned to the hospital and they said she continued to improve. I cleaned up the organ so it is ready to box for shipping.

Sunday, Sept. 17

Another pleasant day. Kate went to see Nellie this forenoon and did not feel encouraged over her condition today. I went over to hear the new preacher this afternoon.

Monday, Sept. 18

I am a half century old today. Dewey and I took a walk this afternoon and called at "Happy" Moore's. It has been a fine day.

Tuesday, Sept. 19

A fine day. Kate went to see Nellie this afternoon and I went over to Amherst. Had a glimpse of Northern Lights tonight.

Wednesday, Sept. 20

Nice day. Picked some beans this afternoon. Kate did not go to see Nellie today, but Alfred Brock went to see here, so we heard that she was getting along all right.

Thursday, Sept. 21

I packed a box and part of a barrel of books today. Mother and Dewey went to see Nellie this afternoon and found her improving. Kate sold most of her hens today.

Friday, Sept. 22

Did more packing today. Dewey and I drove to Amherst this afternoon for some feed. Tonight we all attended an oyster supper and entertainment at the church.

Saturday, Sept. 23

Kate and I continued packing during this forenoon. Kate went over to see Nellie this afternoon and found her improving. It has been a fine day.

Sunday, Sept. 24

Fine day. We attended church this afternoon.

Monday, Sept. 25

It was very foggy this morning, but there was some sunshine during the day. There were showers this afternoon.

Tuesday, Sept. 26

Did more packing this forenoon. Kate went to see Nellie and mother and Dewey went to the Fair at Amherst. I gathered some pears and packed to send to Mr. Dyer. Picked up some hickory nuts.

Wednesday, Sept. 27

A cloudy day with some rain this evening. Dewey and I went to Amherst this afternoon and shipped the keg of pears to Mr. Dyer. We had a call from Mr. Osborn, the new minister.

Thursday, Sept. 28

Cooler and a clear day all day. I did crating and packing. Helped Dewey pick up some hickory nuts.

Friday, Sept. 29

A stormy day. I wrote some letters this forenoon and took them to Amherst to mail this afternoon.

Saturday, Sept. 30

This has been a bright, but rather cold and windy day. Dewey and I took a trip to Mt. Holyoke, the views from which are very fine. We went up the incline railway and crossed the river by ferry when we came down and went to Northampton for our dinner. We met Kate there and came home together.

Sunday, October 1

Storm came on again this afternoon and it is raining hard tonight. The folks went to church, but I have been at home all day.

Monday, Oct. 2

Rained all last night and this forenoon. I made some crate stuff for a trunk. Borrowed frames at Aldrielis for Kate and Mother to make up a quilt for Nellie. It is clear and cool tonight.

Tuesday, Oct. 3

A bright day, but looks stormy again tonight. I worked at making crates. Kate went to see Nellie this afternoon. Mother and Dewey went to Amherst.

Wednesday, Oct. 4

Hard rain during last night and this forenoon. Kate and I attended a supper at the church tonight.

Thursday, Oct. 5

A beautiful day. The foliage is a blaze of color now. I went to the hospital at Northampton to see Nellie this afternoon. It grew real cool this evening.

Friday, Oct. 6

Did more crating this forenoon. Went to town this afternoon to do some errands and enquire about ticket to the ozark region.

Saturday, Oct. 7

Rained hard last night and this morning. Dewey went to a meeting of boys at the Agricultural College. Kate went to see Nellie this afternoon and I drove over to Amherst.

Sunday, Oct. 8

Ther.: 28+

A beautiful day. Mother, Kate and I went for a drive over on the hills to the south, and attended church before coming home. We had a late dinner. There was a heavy frost this morning.

Monday, Oct. 9

Fine weather. Did more packing and boxed up the organ. Kate and I called at Boyden's and the minister's this evening. Kate sold more hens tonight and has but 5 left now.

Tuesday, Oct. 10

A nice day. I went over to Northampton to see Nellie this afternoon and said goodbye to her. Have decided to go to Michigan and make a short visit, and mother is going with me.

Wednesday, Oct. 11

Finished packing and took my trunk to the station this forenoon. Kate took mother and her trunk and Dewey and I went on the Trolley this afternoon to take the train for Michigan. It has threatened to rain, but has cleared off.

Thursday, Oct. 12

We had a glimpse of Niagara Falls this morning. We had a nice trip all the way. Will and Millicent met us at Ann Arbor, so we got through home tonight in fine shape.

Friday, Oct. 13

Took dinner with Don's folks today. Called on Maude Williams on the way down. This afternoon mother and I went down to aunt Delia Kenny's and I called at Ossion's and Bert's. We had supper at aunt Delia's.

Saturday, Oct. 14

I went to Dexter this forenoon and called on a number of friends. Went from there out to Ed. Marts where Will and the folks were at a Farmer's meeting, and rode home with them. Went to Delhi tonight and met Jennie McColl and Nettie West, who came out to see me.

Sunday, Oct. 15

Nice day. Went to the old church and met many friends. This afternoon Will took me out to Merrill's and Henry Queal met me there. I am writing them and staying all night.

Monday, Oct. 16

Henry took me part way home this forenoon and I made a number of calls on the way. Had a letter from Kate, reporting all well. Made more calls this afternoon. It looks very stormy tonight.

Tuesday, Oct. 17

It rained all last night. I called at Balls and aunt Delia's this forenoon. Stayed about home and visited the folks this afternoon. Will took me to the train tonight and I started west.

Wednesday, Oct. 18

Got to Chicago this morning and came on to St. Louis today. Got a room, had a bath and am going to spend the night here. It is a busy city.

Thursday, Oct. 19

Had a trip through south Missouri today and tonight I am at Mt. Grove, where I intend to do a day's looking. I did not see as fine orchards as I had expected on the road down.

Friday, Oct. 20

A dull day with some drizzling weather. I visited the Fruit Experiment Station and had a talk with the director. Took a ride out in the country this afternoon and visited the poultry station. Came to Springfield tonight.

Saturday, Oct. 21

A rainy day. I came down to Springdale, Ark. this forenoon, but could only see a little of the town because of the storm. I am not pleased with the looks of things here.

Sunday, Oct. 22

There was a heavy frost this morning. Went to church this forenoon, and took a long walk out in the country this afternoon and saw some large orchards.

Monday, Oct. 23

Had a letter from Kate this morning and was glad to hear from home. I rode down to Fayetteville this afternoon with a Mr. Bangs and had a chance to see considerable country. Am staying at a hotel here tonight.

Tuesday, Oct. 24

Today I journeyed by rail to a way back town named Patrick, and saw some of the wild, rough country of the Ozarks. I am not pleased with either water or country. Wrote a letter to Kate tonight.

Wednesday, Oct. 25

I took long rambles out from town this forenoon. Some sections look well, but I do not like the water and see no chance for me.

Thursday, Oct. 26

Today I came to Sulphur Springs where I have put up at a nice little Inn. This afternoon I took a walk about the town and out in the country. I saw the comet this morning.

Friday, Oct. 27

A cold wind has blown all day and it has been cloudy. Papers report snow north of here. I took a walk out in the country, but did not see any thing that pleases me. Have made arrangements to start for N.C. tomorrow.

Saturday, Oct. 28

Traveled and waited for trains all day and only got to Springfield, Mo., tonight, but I get train for Memphis at midnight.

Sunday, Oct. 29

All day on the cars going toward N.C. Was in Ark., Tenn., Miss., and Alabama today.

Monday, Oct. 30

Got to Asheville early this morning and I took the Trolley and went out to see the village of Weaverville, which I think is very pretty. Got to Brevard tonight.

Tuesday, Oct. 31

I got my trunk up to Hiram's gallery today and unpacked it. I found my 4 x 5 camera in bad shape but fixed it up. Came on to Lake Toxaway tonight. The engine broke down so we were very late.

Wednesday, November 1

I spent last night at Rains, and today came on to Sapphire. Made some Kodak exposures at Mrs. Crisp's. Had dinner at the store with Mr. and Mrs. Burlingame and am at their house tonight. Was at Fairfield Inn this afternoon.

Thursday, Nov. 2

Called at Morrow's this forenoon, then went to the Sapphire store and had lunch with Mr. Burlingame. This afternoon I walked to Lake Toxaway, where I am staying tonight. It is growing cold.

Friday, Nov. 3

Came down to Brevard this morning, and have been about town all day. Had a good letter from Kate, saying Nellie was at home and getting on nicely. She will soon be ready to come south, as Nellie will go to Mich. There was ice this morning.

Saturday, Nov. 4

Very cloudy and some rain today. I made a few calls and packed my grips, and this afternoon I came to Hendersonville and am with the Bakers. Mr. B. puts me on track of land near here that I must go and see.

Sunday, Nov. 5

Cloudy most of today. Farry took me to see his new house this forenoon. Have written a letter to Kate, and spent the rest of the day visiting.

Monday, Nov. 6

A very rainy day and I did not get out at all, but spent the day in reading and visiting. It cleared up some tonight, and I hope for pleasanter weather.

Tuesday, Nov. 7

I went out to Flat Rock today and took dinner with the Grimshaws. I see many new homes and evidencies of the growth of this section. I plan to go out in the country to a fair tomorrow if it is pleasant.

Wednesday, Nov. 8

Got out early this morning and walked to Dana, where the folks are holding a fair. It has rained a good share of the day and I had a tough walk coming on this afternoon to the foot of Sugar Loaf Mt.

Thursday, Nov. 9

It has been so foggy and misty all day that I could see nothing or do anything about getting any pictures.

Friday, Nov. 10

I went to the summit of Sugar Loaf this forenoon and was above the clouds. Could not do much at picture taking. This afternoon I walked back to Hendersonville getting in after dark.

Saturday, Nov. 11

The train south today was 8 hours late so I did not to Tryon until about night. I came right out to Howes and am going to stay here a few days. Had letters from Kate, Dewey and mother.

Sunday, Nov. 12

It rained last night and this forenoon but cleared up this afternoon and is cool tonight. I spent the day in visiting.

Monday, Nov. 13

Ther.: 26+

Cold and frozen this morning. Mr. Conner took me over to Columbus this morning and I spent the day in looking at property about there. I like the place very well. Had letters from both Kate and mother tonight.

Tuesday, Nov. 14

Chilly and cloudy all day. I went over town this morning and then for a walk out in the country.

Wednesday, Nov. 15

This has been a fine day and I took a long walk, going to Columbus and to Landrum, S.C. Had supper at Conners tonight.

Thursday, Nov. 16

Came to Hendersonville this forenoon and had dinner at Bakers. Received a telegram from Kate saying they would start south tomorrow. This afternoon I walked out to Dana, where I am staying tonight.

Friday, Nov. 17

Came back to Hendersonville this forenoon. Mr. Barber got me a lunch and I came to Asheville this afternoon. It seemed like storming and there were mists, but I saw a rainbow, and so hope for pleasant weather tomorrow.

Saturday, Nov. 18

A cool, but bright day. I went out to Weaverville this forenoon. Kate and Dewey were on a delayed train and did not get here until night, but they are safely with me again. We have to stay all night.

Sunday, Nov. 19

Today we came to Tryon and walked out to Howes' place where we are to be entertained until we rent a house. It is fine weather.

Monday, Nov. 20

Dewey and I went and got their trunks this morning. Then we all went over to Columbus to look at some houses for rent. We had a nice day for the trip.

Tuesday, Nov. 21

I wrote several letters this forenoon and went over town just before noon. We called at Mr. Rankin's this afternoon to see his farm and poultry.

Wednesday, Nov. 22

Ther.: 26+

Frosty this morning. Wrote more letters and called at Connors this forenoon. Kate and I walked over town and did some trading this afternoon.

Thursday, Nov. 23

I went up to Brevard today and got my trunk and some other things. It has been a cloudy, dull day, looking very stormy. It was very dark when I came out from the station.

Friday, Nov. 24

It was quite warm this morning, but suddenly began growing cold, and this afternoon there were snow flakes in the air and a hard wind. I had a wagon take our trunks and some things we got at the stores, over to Columbus.

Saturday, Nov. 25

I went over town this morning and settled up my bills, then I walked to Columbus and spent the rest of the day swapping out the house and getting things some ready to move in.

Sunday, Nov. 26

A very fine day. We all took dinner at the Connors. This afternoon Mr. Howes brought Kate and Dewey and Ray Cushing brought me over to our cottage at Columbus.

Monday, Nov. 27

We have been very busy all day arranging things. I made two tables, and there is other furniture in the house so we can make ourselves quite comfortable. It looks like a storm coming tonight.

Tuesday, Nov. 28

There was rain last night and this morning and dark clouds all day. I wrote some letters this forenoon. Did some more fixing about the house.

Wednesday, Nov. 29

It cleared up today and turned quite cold, so that it will freeze tonight. Dewey and I cut up considerable wood and we started up the heating stove in the front room tonight.

Thursday, Nov. 30

It was cold this morning. We walked over to the Howes' this forenoon, and had Thanksgiving dinner with them.

Friday, December 1

Kate and I took the train to Hendersonville this forenoon and from there we went out to Dana to look at land. Found that the orchard I thought I wanted had just been sold. We are staying with Mr. Case and family.

Saturday, Dec. 2

Mr. Case took us to look at a place this forenoon and we are greatly pleased with it for a home place. We have made an oral bargain for about 90 acres of land and hope to get it. We came to Hendersonville this evening and are with the Baker's.

Sunday, Dec. 3

Kate went to church this forenoon with Mrs. Barber's daughter and a friend. This afternoon we walked out to Flat Rock and called on the Grimshawe's in their new home. It is wild and windy tonight. We called at Farry Barber's new home.

Monday, Dec. 4

Kate and I came back to Tryon this forenoon and had dinner at Howes'. This afternoon I walked to Columbus and Kate and Dewey were brought over by Mrs. Howes. Tonight we are keeping house once again.

Tuesday, Dec. 5

A fine day. We did a lot of letter writing. Kate and I drew up plans for a house tonight, but may have to alter them to suit our pocket books.

Wednesday, Dec. 6

Another fine day. Spent most of the day working on house plans. Dewey started in going to school. Kate did a large washing.

Thursday, Dec. 7

Fine weather. Worked on house plan this forenoon. I walked to Tryon this afternoon to do trading and then called at Conner's. Dewey met me at Lynn as I came back.

Friday, Dec. 8

Pleasant and warm day. We had a door open about all the time. I completed one plan for a house, but we fear it may cost too much to build.

Saturday, Dec. 9

Dewey went over to see the Howes today. I dug out a tree that stood in front of the house and chopped it up for firewood. It has looked some like a coming storm.

Sunday, Dec. 10

No storm yet, but cloudy most of the day. Spent the day reading and writing. Kate and Dewey attended church.

Monday, Dec. 11

Some light showers during last night. Cloudy all today. I received a Bank Draft, so will start for Dana to close bargain for land.

Tuesday, Dec. 12

I got up early this morning and walked over to Tryon and took the train to Hendersonville, then walked to Dana and have been planning about our future home we expect to have here.

Wednesday, Dec. 13

Mr. Case got a surveyor this forenoon and ran the lines so he could make us a deed to the land, and I paid him for it in full. This afternoon I came to Hendersonville, and am at Baker's tonight.

Thursday, Dec. 14

This morning I went to the Court House and left deeds to be recorded. Bought some photo goods from Baker and took train to Tryon. There were a lot of automobiles at Tryon where a sort of good roads celebration is going on.

Friday, Dec. 15

It rained during last night and a good bit of today. I wrote some letters and did a little reading.

Saturday, Dec. 16

Heavy rain last night and this forenoon. Dewey and I went up on Tryon Mountain this afternoon and got some Galax leaves. Although cloudy, the vines were very fine.

Sunday, Dec. 17

Dewey and I took a walk with Mr. Hughes this forenoon and got some sprigs of Holly and Mistletoe. It has been quite a pleasant day. I called on the mail carrier, Mr. Page, this afternoon.

Monday, Dec. 18

This has been a beautiful day. Dewey and I walked over to the Howes and Conners this afternoon to get some of my things.

Tuesday, Dec. 19

We have been very busy all day doing up packages to send away for Christmas. Dewey went up on the mountain for more Galax leaves. It has been a fine day, but shows signs of storm tonight.

Wednesday, Dec. 20

A stormy day, with sleet, ice and rain. We did up and sent off a few more Christmas packages. Had word that our goods were sent on from Amherst.

Thursday, Dec. 21

It was warmer today, but rained some and kept cloudy. We were over at the Hughes tonight to hear his Phonograph.

Friday, Dec. 22

Storming all today and I spent most of my time in reading. Some Christmas gifts came to us from the home folks today.

Saturday, Dec. 23

Continues cloudy. I walked to Tryon this forenoon to do a little Christmas shopping. Rode most of the way back with Mr. Mills. A lot more packages came to us today.

Sunday, Dec. 24

We had dinner to day with Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, and the company they had. Toward evening we hurried things into our grips and walked over to Mr. Conner's, getting there just at dark. It is very muddy.

Monday, Dec. 25

There was a great feast at the Conner's today and a number of their friends helped fill the table. Tonight we have been talking house plan. It has rained some today.

Tuesday, Dec. 26

I gave up the idea of going to Dana, as it is so stormy and muddy. Our goods from Amherst are at the station in Tryon, and I want to get them out home soon as possible. I came back to Columbus this afternoon, but Kate and Dewey are staying longer.

Wednesday, Dec. 27

Wrote a number of letters this forenoon. Miss Cushing brought Kate and Dewey home this afternoon, and our goods were brought over from Tryon. It rained hard last night, but has been clear weather today and is cooler tonight.

Thursday, Dec. 28

Frozen up this morning. We have been unpacking some of the goods. Kate did her washing.

Friday, Dec. 29

Got out early this morning and walked to Tryon. Took train to Hendersonville where I had dinner with the Baker's and walked out to Dana this afternoon. The ground was frozen this morning but it has thawed up.

Saturday, Dec. 30

Sprinkles and misty weather all day. I made arrangements to have a new house started as soon as men and material can be gotten together. Walked to Hendersonville, took train to Tryon, bought a lantern and came home tonight.

Sunday, Dec. 31

It rained hard during last night and this morning. We took a short walk this afternoon but encountered much mud.

Memoranda

Feb. 12 - cow served

Cash Account - October

Date		Received	Paid
11	Ry ticket		16.20
12	Paper		0.03
14	Masonic dues		3.00
	Lunch		0.10
	Postal		0.05
15	Church		0.15
17	Car fare		4.60
18	""		5.80
	Paper(5), lunch(15)		0.20
	Show		0.10
	Lodging		1.25
19	Cars		7.70
	lunch		0.30
	paper		0.05
	baggage		0.10
20	Board		0.75
	cars		1.70
	shoes and haircut		0.35

	postals	0.25
21	cars	2.80
	papers	0.10
22	church	0.10
23	shave(15), cotton(5)	0.20
	cards	0.05
24	card(1.80), lunch(20)	1.90
	board	2.75
25	Barber(40), card(10)	0.50
	Board(100), cars(30)	1.30
	Postage	0.50
26	cars(157), paper(5)	1.62
	board	0.75
27	barber	0.15
31	Ry fare	0.50
	insurance	0.25
	figs	0.10

Addresses

E. H. Glover
1355 Grand River Ave.
Detriot, Mich.

Frank Blood
R.D. #1, Box 25
Richland, Missouri

Mrs. W. A. Fales
14 Linden
Northampton, Mass.

F. P. Clark
54 Main
Northampton, Mass.

Shearwood
1508 Chestnut
Trenton, Mo.

Hubbel
22 Sanderjas
Manila

S. T. Hughes
401 0 S. 17th
Maywood, Ill.

Judge L. B. Robinson
Perry, Okla.

Nettie West
422 E. Huron
Ann Arbor, Mich.

Alfred Brock
600 Union
Springfield

W. O. Waters
818 Kennedy
Washington, D.C.