

ORAL HISTORY INTERVIEW DEED OF GIFT (RELEASE FORM)

The mission of Special Collections and University Archives, D. H. Ramsay Library, is to facilitate undergraduate research opportunities related to community-based issues. An important part of this effort is the collection of oral history interviews with knowledgeable individuals from all walks of life and to make recordings of the interviews and any accompanying materials (transcripts, photographs, papers or records, etc.) available for historical and other academic research purposes. In order for your interview /s to be placed in Special Collections and University Archives for future historic use, it will be necessary for you to sign this gift agreement. Before doing so, you should read it carefully and ask any questions you may have regarding its terms and conditions.

I,..... [interviewee],

of,..... [address, city, state, zip code], herein permanently donate and convey my oral history interview /s to Special Collections and University Archives, D. H. Ramsay Library. In making this gift, I understand that I am conveying all right, title, and interest in copyright to Special Collections and University Archives. In return, Special Collections and University Archives grants me a nonexclusive license to utilize my interview /s during my lifetime. I also grant to Special Collections and University Archives the right to use my name and likeness in any finding aids or promotional materials for publications or projects.

I further understand that I will have the opportunity to review and edit any transcripts of my interview /s before it is / they are made available for historical research whether in audio/video and / or transcript form. Special Collections and University Archives will then make my interview /s available for research without restriction. Future uses may include quotation and publication or broadcast in any media, including the Internet.
